Focus on the Family Interview Today — Atheism Remix

Monday, February 23, 2009

I was honored to talk with Dr. James Dobson, founder of Focus on the Family about my recent book, Atheism Remix. The interview is broadcast today on the “Focus on the Family” radio program, which Dr. Dobson hosts.

It was a good conversation about how we should respond to the so-called “New Atheism.” You can listen here.

I am also honored to serve as a member of the Board of Directors for Focus on the Family.
