PRESENTS
DR. FRED B. CRADDOCK

March 5-8, 1991

The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

DR. FRED B. CRADDOCK holds the Bandy Distinguished Chair in Preaching and New Testament in the Candler School of Theology. He came to Emory from the Graduate Seminary of Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma where he held the chair of Darbeth Distinguished Professor of Preaching and New Testament. Dr. Craddock joined the Phillips University department of religion faculty in 1961, moving to the seminary in 1965 where he taught until 1979.

Dr. Craddock received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Johnson Bible College, Knoxville, Tennessee in 1950, the Bachelor of Divinity from Phillips in 1953, and the Ph.D. in New Testament from Vanderbilt in 1964. He has done postdoctoral study at Tübingen, Germany, and at Yale.

An ordained minister of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Dr. Craddock has served pastorates in Tennessee and Oklahoma. In addition, Dr. Craddock has served on the General Board and Administrative Committee of the Christian Church, on the Commission on Theology of the Council on Christian Unity, and has chaired the Commission on Ministry for the Christian Church in Georgia. He presently is serving on the Task Force on Ministry for the Christian Church. Dr. Craddock is a member of the Association of Disciples for Theological Discussion, the American Academy of Religion, the Society of Biblical Literature, and the Society for New Testament Studies. He is on the Editorial Board of Quarterly Review and has served on the Advisory Board of Interpretation.

In addition to preaching and teaching widely at church assemblies and ministers' conferences, Dr. Craddock has served as guest professor at other seminaries. He has delivered the Lyman Beecher Lectures at Yale, the Scott Lectures at Claremont School of Theology, the Adams Lectures at Southeastern Baptist Seminary, the Schaff Lectures at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, the Cole Lectures at Vanderbilt, the Westervelt Lectures at Austin Presbyterian Seminary, and the Earl Lectures at Pacific School of Religion.

Dr. Craddock has written eight books: The Pre-Existence of Christ in the New Testament (1968), As One Without Authority (1971, rev. 1974 and 1979), Overhearing the Gospel (1978), The Gospels (1981) commentaries on John (1982) and Philippians (1984), Preaching (1985), and a commentary on Luke (1990). In addition, he has prepared with Lee Keck the Pentecost 3, Series B volume of the Proclamation series; with Ernest Saunders the Epiphany volume; with Carl Holladay, John Hayes, and Gene Tucker he has published a nine-volume series, Preaching the New Common Lectionary (1984); and he has provided the "Commentary on the Gospel of Luke" in Harper's One-Volume Commentary (1988). Dr. Craddock has also contributed a number of articles to various journals.

A native of Humboldt, Tennessee, Dr. Craddock is married to the former Nettie Lee Dungan. They have a daughter and a son.
