Hershael W. York

Hershael W. York serves as Associate Professor of Christian Preaching at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, a position he has held since 1997.

Dr. York served as Associate Pastor of Ashland Avenue Baptist Church, Lexington, KY, from 1980 to 1987, Senior Pastor of First Baptist Church, Marion, AR, from 1988 to 1990, and as Senior Pastor of Ashland Avenue Baptist Church, Lexington, KY, from 1990 to 1997. During his tenure in Lexington, York led the church to excel in evangelism. Ashland Avenue became the first church ever to become a national clinic base within two years of implementing Evangelism Explosion.

Dr. York received the Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts from the University of Kentucky, the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Philosophy from Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary.

Hershael, and his wife, Tanya, are the proud parents of Michael and Seth.

Jerry Vines

Jerry Vines serves as Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Jacksonville, Florida, one of the nation's largest congregations.

Prior to arriving in Jacksonville, Dr. Vines served churches in Alabama and Georgia as pastor. He was elected President of the Alabama Pastor's Conference in 1976, and President of the Southern Baptist Pastor's Conference in 1976 and 1977. Dr. Vines served two terms as President of the Southern Baptist Convention, 1988-89 and 1989-90.

Dr. Vines received the Bachelor of Arts from Mercer University, Macon, GA, the Bachelor of Divinity from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, New Orleans, LA, and the Doctor of Theology from Luther Rice Seminary, Jacksonville, FL.

Dr. Vines and his wife, Janet, are the parents of two daughters, Joy and Jodi, and two sons, Jim and Jon.
