A. Known as "No-Lynn" and "South Fork of No-Lynn" for a time. Now "South Fork."

B. Became "Providence" in 1790. Organized for discipline, out of Pioneer Virginia Baptists on the way to Kentucky, on the Holston River in North Carolina (Now East Tennessee), in January, 1781. Constituted and recognized by a presbytery of Baptist ministers on September 28, 1781. Moved to Kentucky in Fall of 1783. Met for business on April 3, 1784.

C. The famous "Traveling Church," formerly "Upper Spottsylvania," (1767), most of which migrated to Kentucky in September - December, 1781, under the leadership of Pastor Lewis Craig, the "Moses" of early Kentucky Baptists. Most of members moved north of Kentucky River in the fall of 1783, settled on South Elkhorn Creek, and formed "South Elkhorn"- the first Baptist church organized north of the Kentucky River in the state. The remnant united with Elkhorn Association on September 30, 1785, as a constituent church, only to dissolve in 1786. Area fully taken over by Gilbert's Creek #II, a "Separate" Baptist Church.

#. Pastor

+ . Itinerant ministers, ordained but not pastors

o . Supposedly killed by Indians in 1782. Ordained by Joseph Barnett and John Whitaker on June 18, 1781 as pastor of "Severns Valley," when church organized.

** Nothing is known of this church. It seems to have been taken over by the Methodists after a precarious and feeble existence.
It was never a member of any association. Probably extinct by 1787. It is possible that Level Woods and Pottenger's Creek were one church meeting in two places.

+ It is strongly possible that Indian Run was located in Clark County rather than Mason County. It is not to be confused with the Indian Creek Church in Harrison County at this time. Spencer, however, confused the two in his history. A thorough study of the Elkhorn minutes shows them <sup>46</sup> to be two different churches.
