The field is the world.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

If ye love me, keep my commandments.

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me:

If a man love me he will keep my words: and my Father will love him.

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

KENTUCKY BAPTISTS.

While there are about 200,000 white Baptists in the State of Kentucky who are supposed to affiliate with the General Association of Kentucky Baptists, there are several thousands who do not. A few are called General Baptists and their doctrines are rather general. A small faction are called Free-will Baptists. They may be described as baptized Methodists. A very few call themselves Regular Baptists and Separate Baptists. These few are remnants of the factions which united in 1801 on what was known as the "Terms of General Union." Spencer, in his history of Kentucky Baptists, vol. I, page 547, says: "The distinguishing appellatives, 'Regular' and 'Separate' were dropped and all the Baptist in Kentucky took the name United Baptists."

The agreement to the terms of "General Union" was effected at Providence church, in Clark county, October, second Saturday, 1801.

"The Terms of General Union" adopted were: "We do agree to unite on the following plan:

"1. That the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the infallible word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice.

"2. That there is only one true God, and in the Godhead or divine essence, there are Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

"3. That by nature we are fallen and depraved creatures.

"4. That salvation, regeneration, sanctification and justification are by the life, death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ.

"5. The saints will finally persevere through grace to glory.

"6. That believers' baptism by immersion is necessary to receiving the Lord's Supper.

"7. That the salvation of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal.

"8. That it is our duty to be tender and affectionate to each other, and study the happiness of the children of God in general; to be engaged singly to promote the glory of God.

"9. And that the preaching Christ tasted death for every man shall be no bar to communion.

"10. And that each may keep up their associational and church government as to them may seem best.

"11. That a free correspondence and communion be kept up between the churches thus united.

"Unanimously agreed to by the joint committee:

"Ambrose Dudley, John Price, Joseph Redding, David Barrow, Robert Elkin, Thos. J. Chilton, Daniel Ramey, Moses Bledsoe, Samuel Johnson."

In the same article, on page 554, Dr. Spencer says:

"The Baptists, though, without a known exception in that period, missionary in sentiment, did little to send the gospel abroad during the decade following the great revival (1800 to 1810). They did something in preaching the tidings of salvation to the Indians. . . . It is probable that the Baptists in Kentucky were doing as much for the spread of the gospel as they are at the present time." (1886.)

The point to which we call special attention is that all Kentucky Baptists were United Baptists, and were all missionary. There were a few churches not represented in the meeting at old Providence church who still retained the names of Separate and Regular Baptist.

The split on missions came later under the influence of Daniel Parker and his co-laborers when the Anti-mission churches were led off.

DEDICATION.

The Providence Baptist Church dedicated a substantial new church building on Sunday, April 8th. The house was built by one member, Bro. J. S. Stapp, editor and proprietor of the Columbia Spectator. There was no debt to be met and the congregation gave $60 as a thank offering for missions.

Leaving Louisville on Friday morning went by way of Lebanon and Campbellsville to Columbia, the last twenty miles by stage coach. Was met here by Rev. J. L. Adkins, one of our laborious and efficient missionaries. Bro. Adkins is pastor of six churches. Leaving Columbia in a buggy about 5:30 p. m., we drove about ten miles to Brother Hindman Womaek's, reaching there after dark. Saturday morning to Providence church, where I preached to a good congregation, then down a steep hill, across the creek and up another hill to Sister Young's for dinner. Then we drove to Russell Springs and preached again at 3 p. m., then immediately started and drove to Liberty church, about eight miles distant, where we had night preaching, taking supper with Brother Grider; then to Bro. J. A. McFarland's, about two miles, where we spent the remainder of the night. Sunday morning, about six miles back to Providence, where we had the usual dedicatory services, dinner on the ground, Sunday school after dinner, an address and a sermon on missions, then drove to Zion church, about ten miles distant, and preached again at night. Spent the night near the church with Sister Willis.

Such a trip is beyond the conception of those who have not had similar experiences. Nearly fifty miles over mud roads, through mud holes where the buggy would go in almost to the hub and often we had to get out and climb the banks because the horse could not pull the buggy with two men in it.

Monday morning found us again in Columbia. Then we rode sideways on a narrow seat on the stage back to Campbellsville, and spent the night with Bro. J. S. Gatton, the deservedly popular bishop of Campbellsville. Preached for the Campbellsville saints on Monday night. Tuesday morning back to Louisville by 10:30 a. m. Office work till 3 p. m. and then, without even going home, take the train for Keene, by way of Versailles, to speak on Tuesday night.

THE PADUCAH MEETING.

Allow me a word in regard to the meeting in Second Church, Paducah. In many respects it was the most remarkable I was ever in. It was a revival to begin with; the good workers came from the First Church all aglow with the love of God and souls. Many of the members of the Second Church had been working in the great meeting at the First Church, so were just ready for this meeting. We had a glorious meeting the first night and every night following for five weeks. The first week it rained almost continually and the crowds were not large, but the blessings were, and we had a great time.

After the first week the rain ceased and the crowds came. They filled the church and the walks around the church. We soon saw we needed more room, so we borrowed a Gospel tent from the good Owensboro brethren and had it shipped by express to Paducah. This tent accommodated nearly as many again as the church, but it, too, soon filled to overflowing, but we could tie up the sides and let them stand around on the outside and listen. However, when Sunday evening came there were too many to leave them standing, so we arranged a double-barreled meeting. Bro. Cunningham preached to a church full of women while I preached to a tent full of men. That was a great night. Bro. Cunningham had several professions in the church and then brought the good sisters out to the tent to aid us with the number of penitent men with whom we were laboring.

This report would not be complete should I fail to say anything of our shop meetings at noon in the I. C. shops. It was an inspiring sight to look into some 400 workmen's upturned faces as they sat there listening with intense earnestness to the word of God. It was a common sight to see the tears roll across those strong men's cheeks as the results of sin were described. We had not held many of these meetings until the men began to be aroused and convicted, then followed many of their conversions. Often some happy-faced fellow would grasp my hand, saying "I found Christ last night," or "I got right yesterday here in the shop," "I am satisfied now," "I am all right now," etc.

During the five weeks there were 102 additions to the church and how many were saved none of us knew. The pastor kept the names until after they reached 80 and they were blessed in so many different places that he could not keep up with them.

I found Bro. Cunningham a most excellent co-laborer; he is a great big-hearted, good fellow whom everybody loves. I don't think he has an enemy in Paducah. He has only been preaching some three years and in my opinion is one of our coming strong men. I prevailed with him to plan for a term in the "School of the Prophets" at Louisville, which I hope he will do. Space will not permit me to tell of the many kindnesses shown me by those good Paducah people of both the Second and First Churches. They were far too numerous to mention here.

E. B. FARRAR.

PIKEVILLE.

Dear Bro. Bow—I am rejoicing over prospects in Old Pike County. First the Lord has blessed my meetings; 19 additions to the church. I have planted 17 "in the likeness of Christ's death." Have secured the court-house for regular services and last Sunday preached to two magnificent congregations, with two conversions. We are preparing to organize a Sunday school in court-house, thus having two in Pikeville. I am elated over prospects of getting Bramley to teach John's Creek school nine months term, and patrons make all the salary on field. This looks like the Lord opening a kind window from heaven. If the Methodists don't kick us out this looks fair for Baptists. Then I have also collected some mission money, thus lightening your burden; hope to lighten it half this year. Then the Lord gave us a good man in Webb, who wrote for the MONTHLY. He came from the United Baptists. He is an excellent gentleman; won the medal last year in school teaching in the county. He is an ordained preacher and speaks well. He certainly is on fire with missions. He wants to come to the Seminary. I have almost averaged one sermon each day for April. This has been a great month for my work. I have ten men who secure the money for lot in Pikeville, when I ask them to. Card promises $100, Johns Creek, $125, Feds Creek, $100, Doctor, this looks like getting the thing stirred to me. I can raise money for lot which will cost $1,000 and a good sum on building.

The Lord is stirring Baptists, and they will yet take the world.

R. L. BAKER.

BEATTYVILLE.

It gives me pleasure to write to the Kentucky Mission Monthly and tell the brethren that little by little our army is being strengthened. During the last month we have received ten by letter and two by experience. One of them being a man who has been a maker and seller of whisky all of his life. It is wonderful to see what changes are wrought through the power of His blood. As I raised him up out of the watery grave, he said, "I feel this is the only day I have ever lived for Christ, and I am happy; thank God." His wife is a consecrated Christian woman, and I feel that through her prayers and daily walk he has been led into the marvelous light of the gospel.

With Christ as our Captain, we expect to still march on, from victory unto victory until the crown be won. Ever remember us in the strife. Yours for Christ,

C. T. BROOKSHIRE.

TRIP TRAMPS

Left Louisville April 13th. Went to Midway, thence to Georgetown. On 14th went to Kingsville, where we met Bro. R. R. Noel. Dined with Dr. Acton, a member of our Baptist Building Band. Went then with Bro. Noel to three of his churches; first to Grove and preached Saturday afternoon and night. Spent Saturday night with Bro. Watts. Sunday to Waynesburg; good congregation, pleasant service. Dined Sunday with Bro. J. M. Johnson, who also joined the Baptist Building Band. Preached at night at Pleasant Point; fine congregation. Stopped Sunday night with Bro. Routen. Bro. Noel has four good churches, many young people, hopeful outlook; wants an evangelist to aid him in meetings this fall. He is a noble consecrated man and is doing a grand work. All his churches except Grove have good houses. The latter has the house up and weatherboarded. Church will need some aid to complete the house.

Went to Covington Monday night and home Tuesday.

Friday, April 20th, left Louisville for Corbin. Found Bishop Barnett looking after things with due vigilance. Corbin bids fair to be a great railroad town. The shops, round-house and terminals of three divisions of the L. & N. R. R. make great possibilities for the place. The town is growing away from the Baptist church and it is to our interest to move our location and build a better house. Our cause there is not strong, but the outlook is hopeful. In South Corbin there is a second Baptist church. They have a good chapel nearing completion. The Second church members are not "hardshells," but it remains to be seen whether or not they will be missionaries. Brethren Barnett, Roach and Day drove me over the city. Preached at night. Left Corbin at 1:45 a. m., Saturday, came to Junction City and waited till nearly noon and took train for Somerset. Found Bishop O. M. Huey like a watchman on the tower, watching with keen interest the progress of the Lord's army. He had received about 136 members in four months, has a prosperous mission, crowded houses, a large Sunday School and a live church. They need a new house; must have a missionary for the work in this growing city. Another railroad town. Huey says the people come so fast they cannot count them. Preached morning and night at church; in the afternoon at the mission. They are preparing to organize a second mission to meet the growing demands of the work. Home Monday 23rd.

Saturday night, 28th, took boat for Wise's Landing; reached there about mid-night, was met at the Landing by Bro. Averitt, deacon of Pleasant View church. Sunday was the occasion of the dedication of the new church building. The little band had struggled heroically under many difficulties, but had reached the goal at last. Under the leadership of our missionary, Rev. G. W. Edens, and aided and encouraged by the board of Sulphur Fork Association, whose efficient treasurer is that model deacon, J. T. Wilson, of LaGrange, they have built and dedicated free of debt a splendid house. The State aided in paying the pastor and also in liquidating the debt on the house.

Monday, April 30th, the last day of the financial year, was an exceedingly busy day. About one-third of the whole year's receipts come in April, over $17,000.00, and nearly half of that amount came the last day of the month. This ought not to be. O, that our people would observe God's plan: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." Notice who—"every one of you; when—"upon the first day of the week;" how—systematically; what or how much—"as God hath prospered him." This done there would be no lack, no debt.

May 6th, preached for Bro. Glaize at Clermont. Had a good day. Bro. Glaize is pastor, S. S. Superintendent, organist and choir. He has some splendid assistants and is doing a good work. The devil has several big mission stations around him where they are distilling poison for the ruin of soul and body. Many of these people are educated to believe it is all right.

May 9th, after aiding in the ordination of Bro. A. F. Wallis at Walnut Street church, who goes as a missionary to Louisiana, took, with many others, the 9:30 train over the L. & N. by way of Nashville to Chattanooga, to attend the Southern Baptist Convention. A great meeting, large attendance, enthusiastic speeches, encouraging reports, hopeful outlook.

Kentucky made increase in her contributions to both Foreign and Home Missions. She gave $26,620.36 to Foreign Missions and $15,821.86 to Home Missions. She stands third in Home Missions and sixth in Foreign Missions. How much did you give to help in this work? We meet next May at Richmond, Va.

Wednesday, 9 to 10 a. m.—Reports of other Committees and unfinished business.

We hope the Committee on Obituaries at our State Ministers' Meeting will be prepared to make a creditable report this year. Our beloved dead are worthy of more notice than we sometimes accord to them.

The committee consists of T. T. Eaton, J. N. Prestridge and H. Boyce Taylor.

Kentucky has now (according to Dr. Burrows' report) over 206,000 white Baptists belonging to the 75 Associations who have nominal connection with the General Association. If these would give an average of 5 cents per week it would amount to $10,300 every week and $535,600 in a year. Many of us will give much more than 5 cents per week and we ought easily to average that amount. I will agree to pay that amount for myself and for thirty-three others every Sunday in the year. Then I will respond to special calls to give as much more. What will you do? How much do you owe the Lord?

MISS CLAIRE'S PUPILS.

Is the title of a most interesting book of 311 pages, coming from the facile pen of Mrs. Mattie S. Smith, of Rochester, Ky. She is the wife of Eld. W. H. Smith, one of our strongest and most successful preachers. Hereafter he will be known as the husband of the author of "Miss Claire's Pupils." Get the book and read it. Price $1.00. Address the author at Rochester, Ky.

The Barboursville Church, together with many of their friends, are rejoicing over the coming of Rev. Thos. S. Hubert as their pastor. We congratulate them on securing such a leader.

A brother writes: "Bro. Hubert is here and he is all we expected. We have nothing but joy and compliments over his coming."

That was a great meeting at the Second Church, Paducah. Bro. E. B. Farrar went to the aid of Bro. E. H. Cunningham, the missionary pastor. For five weeks they labored, prayed and preached. They received 102 members into the fellowship of the church. Many others professed conversion who went to other churches or remained out of the churches.

We hope that due attention and ample time will be given to the discussion of our Sunday School work at the General Association.

Remember it is impossible for you to have the interest in missions you ought to have unless you have information about the work, and it is impossible to get this information if you do not read the mission journals. We send the KENTUCKY MISSION MONTHLY, Our Home Field and the Foreign Mission Journal to any one one year for 50 cents. Buy 50 cents worth of two cent postage stamps, put them in an envelope and send them with your name and address and we will send all three of the papers to you one year.

Many people are far more interested in Foreign and Home Missions than in State Missions. Why? Because they know more about them. For years they have been reading the Foreign Mission Journal, and all of the workers are busy distributing tracts on Foreign and Home missions; they do not read and hence do not know about State Missions, and consequently are not interested in this work. A man goes as a foreign missionary and he is a hero in the eyes of our people, yet the man who goes into the mountain regions gets less pay, and has more hardships and must make greater sacrifice in many cases than the missionary on the foreign field. We have been crying all these years "The best men to the front," and we have made it possible to secure for the work abroad our choicest men. The time is come when we must recognize the importance of our work in our own State, or else continue to suffer by the neglect of this work, which does and forever must hinder the work of Foreign and Home Missions. O, that our people were not so blind that they wilfully refuse to see the work is one. Missions are missions. To neglect the work at home must retard the work abroad.

LIBERTY.

Dear Bro. Bow—The meeting at Highland Park was a decided success for the work there. Sixteen added and more to follow. The meeting at Liberty is still in progress. We had two additions by letter Sunday. We have Baptists enough living in easy reach of this place to make this a good, strong church. This is one of the heaviest burdens that pastors or evangelists carry—Baptists who will not do their duty. It is costing our churches and mission boards as much as anything else. The burden is pretty heavy here, but a braver little band you never saw. All are delighted with Bro. Owens, the pastor. Pray for us.

E. W. COAKLEY.

Remember we will send the "Mission Monthly," the "Foreign Mission Journal," and the "Home Field" one year for 50 cts.
