KENTUCKY MISSION MONTHLY

The field is the world.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

If ye love me, keep my commandments.

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me.

If a man love me he will keep my words: and my Father will love him.

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

THE SOMERSET MEETING.

"Man that is born of a woman is of a few days and full of trouble."

This verse is true in spite of the higher critics. In this Somerset meeting it seemed to be doubly true, for we had much trouble. I found Brother Huey up to his very eyes in work trying to do three men's work. He was handling it all remarkably well to be handicapped for room as he is. In the first place his church in Somerset proper is not more than half large enough. I found he had to use quarters in other parts of town for his Baraca Class, the church being filled with other classes. In the chapel, near the depot, things were but little, if any, better. Here there is barely room for their regular work, and entirely too small for a meeting. Out on the Cherrydale mission field where we held our meeting they have nothing of their own in the way of a building. The work is being conducted in a rented store building entirely too small for the work. Somerset needs at once at least $25,000 in buildings, and without aid from outside cannot build the churches they need. Will we ever see our need of a building fund? and come to Bro. Bow's aid with such a fund.

As the Cherrydale field was the most rapidly growing field of any and we were the only denomination working on it, we thought best to hold our meeting out there. This field is near the new railroad shops and is building very fast. Not less than twenty new houses are now being built and almost every day another is begun.

We began in the small store room. There was good interest shown from the first. There were two professions and two additions for baptism the first night I preached. But, alas, within about three days the house was so crowded we could scarcely breathe, to say nothing of work. The building and yard was filled with people. The people crowded the building until an interested person could not get to the front seat for prayer. We were just simply snowed under with crowds until we could not work.

I never did like to give up if there is any chance for victory, so we telegraphed and telephoned to Cincinnati for my tent. Our messages reached Cincinnati just as the high water was coming. Everything that could pull a wagon was moving people and would not stop to haul the tent to the express office. After much trouble, delay, worry and a $19 express bill we finally got the tent, put it up, borrowed lumber and floored it, put two stoves in and began our work in the new place. God favored us with warm weather and in a few days the tent was running over with people. The unsaved came in large numbers and were soon asking for prayer; some thirty or forty were interested, when entirely unlooked for 200 shopmen went out on a strike. This was a fatal move for the meeting; everybody began to talk strike and lost all interest in the meeting. The strike came just after we began our noonday meetings in the shop. We had only held two noonday meetings, but the men were attending well and giving fine attention. After the strike the detectives took charge of the shops and we were not permitted to hold any more noonday meetings in the shops. Our congregations in the tent remained large, but the interest was gone. Expecting every day that the strike would be settled we continued the meeting. After so long the unsaved began asking for prayer again and our meeting was again filled with much promise, when a bitter cold spell drove us out of the tent to our little building again. Not half of our congregation could get into the store house. Our troubles were not yet ended. The last Sunday of the meeting a wind storm tore down our tent breaking one of the poles and tearing the tent from top to bottom. We were having services during the wind storm, and fortunately we were in the building, or some one might have been hurt when the tent blew down. After the storm we were looking at the wreck when a messenger brought us word that small pox had broken out in that part of town and we would have to close the meeting. We were willing to close. It did not take any argument to induce us to say all right. However, in the face of all of these hindrances God blessed our work. There were 37 professions of faith and 29 additions to the church, 19 of whom came for baptism. Some will join other churches. This was big pay for 1000 years work, but it was only a taste of what it might have been if we could have had a fair show at the field. The material was there in abundance and within reach if circumstances had permitted.

Bro. Huey was handicapped by affliction during our entire meeting, and after its close went to Louisville where he underwent a painful operation. At this writing news comes that he is doing nicely. Let the readers pray for his speedy restoration and return to Somerset for he is certainly the man for that great and growing field.

When this letter reaches you your servant will be in Corbin, Ky., a very, very indifferent place to religion. Out of 3,500 people I don't think more than 800 ever attend church anywhere. If ever I needed your prayers it is now.

Yours for the work,

E. B. FARRAR.

BEATTYVILLE, KY.

Dear Bro. Bow—My pastorates are as follows: Beattyville, Booneville, Hall's Chapel and Heidelberg. I go to Hall's Chapel the first Saturday and Sunday; the second to Heidelberg, preach there Saturday and Sunday at 11 o'clock, then to Beattyville and preach at 7 o'clock p. m. The third Saturday and Sunday at Booneville. The fourth Sunday two more sermons at Beattyville. Then our prayer meetings, Sunday school work and appointments during the week keep me busy.

Lee and Owsley counties are very important, as they are fields of much promise. Beattyville will be the head of navigation for the Kentucky river; two locks and dams are to be built, beginning this summer. This will give us slack water all the year round. Mining with other industries are opening up. We need to hold our ground and meet the demands of this point. Our church is alive, congregations good, Sunday school interesting, prayer meeting well attended.

Booneville, the county seat of Owsley county, is a good little town of four or five hundred inhabitants, a good farming country all around it. I began preaching there in the winter a few times and found enough members to organize a little church. I will have about a dozen first class members to begin with, and a large territory to draw from that is to work up. The members and people are enthusiastic in the matter of having the opportunity to have Baptist preaching.

Hall's Chapel is a country church, in a good community; a noble band of brethren and thoroughly alive to their opportunities.

Heidelberg, six miles below Beattyville, is a point of great opportunity, as one of the locks will be located there; also a branch railroad starts there this spring to penetrate a region rich in coal and timber. Buildings are going up and work of all kinds progressing. Our membership is small at this point, yet we feel that a brighter day awaits us.

Beginning at a point ten miles above Booneville, take a circle south to the Lee and Estill county line, then with the county line to Breathitt county, then to the beginning, and I am the only ordained Baptist minister in all this territory. There are a number of points that much good could be done.

This mountain work is the most interesting and important that can be considered by Kentucky Baptists. I have refused working anywhere else, determined years ago to spend my life in this work.

As ever, your brother,

J. G. PARSONS.

BEATTYVILLE, KY.

Dear Bro. Bow—I have just constituted a church at Booneville, Owsley county. We have about 12 members to begin with. The membership is of the best material in the town and community. Prospects very encouraging. Beattyville, Hall's Chapel and Heidelberg are all awake to their opportunities.

J. G. PARSONS.

HYDEN, KY.

Dear Bro. Bow—Our meeting has proved a success. We had no excitement; no begging people to join. When the meeting commenced there were some who came and joined without any invitation. Dr. John Lewis, one of the first settlers of Hyden, joined at the age of 75 and was buried in baptism to-day with twenty others. Some were his grandchildren. We must have a house.

Fraternally yours,

LEWIS LYTTLE.

JACKSON, KY.

Dear Bro. Bow—This has been a month of real interest to us in our church work. We took hold of missions and in our offering went forward about 500 per cent above any year in the history of the church. "Whereof we are glad." Then we have received three mothers for baptism. We have also enjoyed a back door revival during the month. Numerically we are about 35 less than we were, but we believe our working force is stronger and a number of stumbling blocks have been removed.

Yours in the work,

W. H. SETZER.

The General Association will meet at Mavfield June 26th. The meeting of the Baptist ministers will begin on the night of 24th, and continue two nights and a day. As the June number of the Kentucky Mission Monthly will come out so near the date of the above meeting we deem it well to publish the committees that they may be ready with their reports. It is a sad commentary on the interest and fidelity of a man to hear him say at the time his report is called for. I did not know I was on the committee.

Here is a list of the committees expected to report at Mayfield:

State Missions—H. Boyce Taylor, W. M. Wood.

Foreign Missions—Carter Helm Jones, W. L. Dorgan.

Home Missions—J. S. Dill, Preston Blake.

Sunday-schools and Colportage—J. Clyde Turner, Cecil Cook.

Waman's Work—W. J. McGlothlin, W. E. Mitchell.

Young People's Work—J. T. Watts, J. N. Prestridge.

Ministers' Aid Society—J. A. Booth, J. C. McFerran.

Order of Business—R. T. Bruner, J. M. Rhoddy.

Temperance—M. B. Adams, W. H. Harrison.

Nominations—C. M. Thompson, J. W. Hedden.

Apportionment—J. J. Taylor, B. F. Swindler.

Below is the program of the Ministers' Meeting:

Monday—8:00 p. m.—Sermon, J. R. Hobbs. Alternate, L. T. Wilson.

Tuesday—9:00 to 9:30 a. m.—Devotional exercises.

9:30 to 10:00 a. m.—Paper, "How to Train Young Christians in Personal Service," E. F. Wright. Alternate, M. E. Dodd.

10:00 to 10:30 a. m.—General discussion. Speeches limited to five minutes.

10:30 to 11:00 a. m.—"The Denominational Colleges and the Pastors," T. S. Hubert. Alternate, J. F. Williams.

11:00 to 11:30 a. m.—General discussion. Speeches limited to five minutes.

11:30 a. m. to 12:00 m.—Paper,

"The Pastor as the Layman Would Have Him," W. H. Harrison. Alternate, B. F. Proctor.

12:00 m. to 12:30 p. m.—General discussion. Speeches limited to five minutes.

2:30 to 3:00 p. m.—Paper, "The Pastor His Own Evangelist," B. A. Dawes. Alternate, O. M. Huey.

3:00 to 3:30 p. m.—General discussion.

3:30 to 4:00 p. m.—"The Apostolic Model in the Missionary Enterprise," J. S. Dill; followed by general mass-meeting on Missions to 4:45 p. m.

4:45 to 5:00 p. m.—Report of Committee on Obituaries.

Wednesday—9:00 to 10:00 a. m.—Reports of other committees and unfinished business.

You will notice that several appointees are absent from the State. J. Clyde Turner, E. F. Wright, T. S. Hubert.

We clip the following from the Salem Visitor—a bright, newsy sheet published by Pastor R. L. Baker, of Salem church, Christian county. Baker has been there, and he knows:

Dr. Bow pleads for church building funds. A few dollars in the hands of the board will encourage mountain people to build houses in which to worship. Pike county has but one little house; Floyd none, Johnson two, Breathitt two, Powell none, Lee two, Perry four, Knott one, Magoffin three, Morgan one, Martin one, Letcher none, and others which we might name. This ought to appeal to our people if any thing would. To think our great denomination has so little in houses in which to worship the Lord! Other denominations encourage the people by giving small donations to little churches here and there, so their cause prospers.

Reader, won't you be one of the thousand Dr. Bow asks to join the Baptist Building Band for a few years? It cost you but $1 per month, but you see 1,000 people can build by giving a hundred or so dollars to each church. Then think of the thousands people we can reach with the Gospel, while if we do not have the houses of worship they assemble with other denominations. By giving about $100 to each church at least ten houses each year could be erected. Reader, won't you join? The pastor and his wife have belonged since the movement was first started. If you are interested send your name to J. G. Bow, Louisville, Ky.

THE NEW YEAR.

The new year began May 1st. Let us begin at once. We have only done our duty in April. Let us not be dormant and do nothing for three months, but let us be up and doing now. Take a good start with a vigorous prayerful effort, and then keep it up all the time. God's mercies are new every morning, each day with its crowded blessing brings new obligations; each blessing, gift and opportunity brings added responsibility. Let us seek to meet all in the name and strength of our God.

HOME MISSIONS.

A very important part of our mission work is Home Missions, please, please PLEASE bear in mind that Home Missions does not mean work done under the State Board, nor does it mean mission work done in Kentucky—that is State Missions. Home Missions means the work under the Home Board at Atlanta, Ga. Their field is largely on the Western frontiers, in Cuba, Panama, and in some of our large cities. In co-operation with the State Boards they do some work in several States.

Simplicity and harmony are the essential elements of beauty in the clothing of the body. And it is just as true that simplicity and harmony are essential elements of spiritual beauty, and infinitely more important. A meek and gentle spirit, attuned by truth to the harmony of heaven, is the loveliest object angels look upon.

The ark of bulrushes was for an individual; the ark of gopher wood was for a family; but the ark of the covenant is for all.

Sorrow teaches sympathy. Only the soul that has suffered can be a brother to the soul that is suffering. Ability to enter into another's feelings and to lift up the hearts that are bowed down is one of the lessons learned in the dark days. Because Jesus was a man of sorrows, every suffering soul that has known his has found him kin.

There are now seventy-six associations in Kentucky which are supposed to affiliate with the General Association. In these associations there about 1,700 churches; in these churches there are more than two hundred thousand Baptists. What a mighty host! What a power for God and good if they were all alive and at work for Christ and for souls. I wish I could call effectively to each one and say, "Awake to righteousness."

Is the blue mark under your name on this paper? If so, it means you are in arrears. Please remit. Postage Stamps will do.

Even yet a great many Baptists in Kentucky do not think they ought to send money for Foreign and Home Missions to the State Board. We want all the money for both Foreign and Home Missions sent through the State Board. Otherwise you will receive no credit for it in the minutes of the General Association.

To the treasurers of churches or associations, or any one sending us funds, will you please state always to what church the funds are to be credited. We want it if we can to keep an accurate account this year of the contributions from every church, and not simply from each association, and then it is our purpose to publish it in the minutes next year. God keeps the record of all our life-work, our love, faith, gifts and service.

Remember we are saved by grace, but we are to be rewarded according as our work shall be.

Last year Kentucky was entitled to 170 messengers, besides the 75 to be credited to the associations.
This year she is entitled to 216 upon the money basis, and to 76 from associations.

No, we do not believe in a money basis for representation in religious bodies, but some people who say they do believe in it are very quick to accept of the representation without giving the board the money.

As to the money basis in the Southern Baptist Convention it is usually only in name. For instance every single man who has applied this year has been appointed as a messenger. This is usually the case. There is ample room at this writing for nearly one hundred more. So you see no one has been turned down who wanted to go.
Some of these have perhaps given nothing at all to missions this past year. If there were more applicants than places then the duty of the committee would be to distribute the representation as well as they could over the entire State.

In April there were sixty-two associations that sent in contributions to missions.

Of the amount credited to Adairville church the Ladies' Society gave $21 and the Sunday school $5.
Lendon.

Works without faith are like garlands of flowers on a statute: they may add to its beauty, but they do not change its character.

OUR EVANGELISTS.

Dr. W. D. Powell closed a good meeting with the Walnut-street church, Louisville, on the 14th of April. He was called to Mexico on important business. He is to be back and begin a meeting with Pastor T. M. Morton at Dawson Springs about the 15th of May.

Bro. E. B. Farrar is in a meeting with Pastor E. W. Barnett at Corbin, with fine prospects of success. He gives an account in this issue of the meeting at Somerset.

Bro. G. W. Argabrite, who began his labors again with the State Board under the directions of the North Bend Board, is in a fine meeting with Dr. C. G. Skillman at Petersburg, one of his missions of the Bullittsburg church.

Bro. W. H. Smith has recently closed a meeting at Second church, Bowling Green. The meeting resulted in great good to the church, and several new and valuable members were added. This grown up child of the State Board is compelled to enlarge their place of worship to accommodate the crowds who come. D. H. Howerton is the popular pastor. Bro. Smith is now on the Big Sandy, either at Paintsville or Prestonsburg, aiding our missionary pastor, Charles Martin, in a meeting.

Bro. E. W. Coakley held a good meeting at Immanuel church, Covington, with Pastor J. T. Bowden. For the past two weeks he has been at Brooksville, aiding our missionary pastor, J. A. Davis, in a meeting. Have not learned results.

Bro. J. M. McFarland has held two meetings the past month, one at Salem, in Crittenden county, with Pastor T. V. Carter, and one at Richland, in Pendleton county, with Pastor J. A. Hensley. He goes next to Manchester, in Clay county, to aid Pastor H. R. Mc-Lendon.

We are glad to report the best year in the history of Kentucky Mission work. Total receipts $79,750.37. Increase over last year of $18,559.65.

April was the best month in all the history of Kentucky. We received at this office $24,256.99, which was $6,291.61 more than last April.

Kentucky gave the past year, ending April 30th, to State Missions $19,128.68; to Colportage in cash (not including profits on books and gifts of books) $2,586.38; to Foreign Missions $35,544.83; to Home Missions $18,397; to Church Building Fund $2,473.94; to miscellaneous $1,619. This was a gain of $8,924.47 on Foreign Missions; $2,575.14 on Home Missions; $4,543.52 on State Missions; $527.93 on Colportage and Sunday school work; on Church Building $1,232.01; on miscellaneous $856.28.

We thank God and take courage. This is a healthful growth. Now let each one ask, what have I done to bring these results? Shall we not continue to cultivate the grace of liberality and to increase more and more as the years go by and the account draws nearer?

Faith And The Faith.

BY T. T. EATON, D.D., L. L. D.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT.

Noah K. Davis, Ph.D., LL.D., University of Virginia: "The treatise is admirable. Admirable because of its truthfulness, its clear logic and its sound psychology. The style is rhetorical, which makes the book very attractive and readable. I have greatly enjoyed the reading and profited by it, and commend the book to readers of intelligence and culture. I sincerely desire to do what I can, and shall lose no opportunity of recommending and promoting the circulation of the book."

Theodore L. Cwyler, D.D., LL.D., New York: "It is bright and breezy, just as much of a tonic as a good 'Nor'wester.' I especially enjoyed the second part in which he handled so vigorously the claims of the destructive school of Biblical criticism. A ringing and righteous book."

Henry G. Weston, D.D., LL.D., Crozer Theological Seminary: "Have read it with delight. It is an admirable presentation of the place that faith holds in human life. The book cannot fail of being useful. I trust it may give light to many a darkened mind."

B. H. Cerrell, D.D., LL.D., Dean of Baylor Theological Faculty: "It is one of the most valuable contributions to religious literature and life issued by the press in the last hundred years. I have this day ordered one hundred copies for my class. The book hits like lightning and does not need to hit again. Cold must be the heart of the Christian that will not throb with intenser heat as he reads this book."

George Frederick Wright, D.D., LL.D., F. G. S. A., Oberlin University: "I am much interested in 'Faith and The Faith.' It ought to receive a wide circulation to counteract the agnosticism that is so rapidly creeping into our churches, chilling their activities."

B. B. Warfield, D.D., LL.D., Princeton University: "I have enjoyed the little book very much and have found it sound and sane and well fitted to do much good in these confused and confusing days in which our lot is cast."

W. C. Wilkinson, D.D., LL.D., University of Chicago: "It is replete with solid good sense, readably and effectively put. It cannot but produce a happy tonic effect. That text from Revelation at the close, how eloquently it comes in."

F. R. Beattie, D.D., LL.D., Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky.: "The entire discussion is keen, terse, popular and satisfactory. It is a capital book to put into the hands of young people."

Pres. J. W. McGarvey, LL.D., College of the Bible, Lexington, Ky.: "I have read with much interest 'Faith and The Faith,' and I regard it as a very excellent presentation of the subject. I think it will do good wherever it is read, and I hope it will have a very extensive circulation."

Prof. Albert H. Newman, D.D., LL.D., Baylor University: "I have read with unflagging interest this well thought-out and well-written booklet. It is fresh, vigorous and effective."

E. C. Dargan, D.D., LL.D., Southern Baptist Theological Seminary: "I have read with interest 'Faith and The Faith.' It is clear, strong and pleasant to read."
