LISTEN, KENTUCKY BAPTISTS.

C. C. Carroll.

Here is an honor roll. Here is a list for the magnalia of the saints who through faith have wrought righteousness. Write these names high in the records of Old Kentucky. Preserve them in the tablets of the memory for they are the wise ones who have gone forth from this State with the Great Commission burning in their souls. As far back as 1850 the Spirit of our Christ said separate unto me the workers for foreign fields.

Here are two lists. The first the ones who have gone in the past but have either returned or died and the second the ones who are now on the field:

Our Past.

China—	Appointed.	Returned.	Died
Mrs. V. Roberts	1850	1852	...
Dr. T. P. Crawford	1851	1902
Miss M. M. Roberts (Mrs N.W.Halcomb)	1883	1885
Mrs. Laura A. Davault	1884	1888
Mrs. T. J. League	1888
Mrs. G. P. Bostick	1889
Miss Eula Hensley	1908	1909
Africa—
Mrs. F. C. Phillips	1855	1870
S. V. Trimble	1856	1859	1873
P. A. Eubank	1881
Mrs. C. E. Smith	1884	1884
S. M. Cook	1884	1886
Mexico—
F. M. Meyers	1884	1885
Mrs. A. B. Rudd	1888	1898

Read over these names carefully and commit them to memory for they shall stand forth in the roll call of the just. Note the ones who died on foreign fields. Shall we not "highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this 'cause,' under God, shall have a new birth of freedom and that 'church'-government of the people, by the people and for the people, shall not perish from the earth?"

Here is the other list. These are the ones who are making the name of Kentucky great in the record God is keeping. We should honor these names and teaching them to our children cause their work to find harvest in more laborers:

Our Present.

Mrs. E. N. Walne	Japan—1892
Mrs. Peyton Stephens	China—1893
Miss Julia McKenzie	China—1894
Miss E. B. Thompson	China—1900
Rev. D. G. Whittinghill	Italy—1901
Mrs. W. H. Cannada	Brazil—1902
Rev. W E. Sallee	China—1903
Miss Mary E. Moorman	China—1904
Mrs. J. L. Hart	Argentina—1904
Rev. E. L. Morgan	China—1905
Mrs. R. T. Bryan	China—1905
Rev. O. P. Maddox	Brazil—1905
Miss Sallie Priest	China—1906
Mrs. A. S. Taylor	China—1906
Rev. P. H. Anderson	China—1907
Rev. A. B. Christie	Brazil—1907
Rev. A. N. Porter	Mexico—1908
Miss Luella Houston	China—1909

Miss Louise Tucker	China—1910
Mrs. H. M. Harris	China—1910
Dr. Everette Gill	Italy—1910
Mrs. Everette Gill	Italy—1910

Note—Mrs. H. M. Harris the daughter of our State Secretary, Dr. W. D. Powell.

Remember this: While these workers are busy in foreign lands they are laying foundational work in the settlement of the great problem of immigration which confronts America. To evangelize the foreign nations before they come to our shores is the essence of wisdom and as our foreign work grows this solution becomes more and more definite.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPT.

Louis Entzminger, State Secretary.

Arlington.

The latter part of the first week in May we were in an institute with Bishop W. C. Taylor and the Arlington people. There was fine interest in the meeting. A canvass of the community was made, the school graded and nine diplomas delivered to teachers who had completed the Convention Normal Manual. The work at Arlington is in fine shape. Bro. Taylor is one of the very best young pastors with whom we have come in contact, and holds a big place in the hearts of his people. He is a great friend to the Sunday School work, and his people are nobly following his leadership. They have another class working on the Teacher Training and those who have already the diploma are working on the other books for the seals. This was one of the most enjoyable meetings that we have held in the State.

Owensboro.

Here we spent three days with Pastor English and the good people of the Walnut Street Baptist church, beginning a meeting of the Daviess County Baptist Sunday School Association, which met in the Walnut Street Church on Saturday.

The meeting was a very enthusiastic one. Rev. E. O. Cottrell, the president, had been planning for some time and the success of the meeting was evident to this fact.

Splendid addresses were made by several of the brethren and the mission idea presented by Miss Mobberly.

The reports from the Sunday Schools were good. The organization of the Association was completed by election of the following officers, besides the president, secretary and treasurer: Superintendent of Elementary Work, Mrs. C. M. Finn; Superintendent of the Advanced Department, M. O. D. Hazelrigg; Superintendent of Adult Department, Prof. M. E. Ligon; Superintendent of Teacher Training Department, Prof. Elmo Williams.

We expect to have more to say about the Daviess County Sunday School work later on.

Dr. M. A. Jenkins, the new pastor of the First church, is on the field and is taking hold of his work with a vigorous hand.

Dr. Carroll was away and we missed the pleasure of coming in contact with him, but we heard many good things about the work at the Third Baptist church.

Pastor English of the Walnut Street church is doing a fine work. They have just completed a beautiful addition to their church to take care of the Sunday School.

The old auditorium is being remodeled that they will have practically a new house, and they will be one of the best equipped for work in the State.

We congratulate him and his people on this forward step. We heard many good things about Pastors Couch and Cottrell, who are pastors of some of the large churches in and around Owensboro.

Owing to a heavy fall of rain, we had to revisit Owensboro to finish up the work begun. It was our pleasure to come back and help Bro. English and his good people to grade their school. A nice class will take up the Teacher Training work. Bro. English has a splendid corps of workers and a very fine superintendent in Prof. Stroud. We also had the pleasure of addressing the congregation of the Third church at the 11 o'clock service, and had a fine congregation and a good service. Bro. Elmo Williams, the progressive superintendent of the school was in charge of the services. Bro. Williams is the superintendent of the Teacher Training department of the Daviess County Sunday School Association, and will lend valuable assistance in the advancement of the Sunday School work in Daviess county Association.

Midway.

At the invitation of Rev. J. P. Scruggs, pastor of the Midway church, we spent several days in an institute with the Midway church. Bro. Scruggs had a class ready to graduate in the Convention Normal Manual and at the concluding exercises on Sunday night we delivered the diplomas to this class. There was fine co-operation in the meeting. We took a religious canvass of the town and community and helped them in getting their school well graded. Bro. Scruggs has a splendid people and has proven a wise leader and is making progress on all lines. We expect to hear even greater things from Midway.

Teacher Training.

Our Teacher Training work is moving steadily forward. January the first we had just a little over one hundred Convention Normal diplomas in Kentucky, March the first, 204, and June the first, 424. The growth during the past three months has been wonderful. Sixteen more diplomas were delivered during these months than in all the time since the Sunday School Board began the Teacher Training work.

To reach our aim of one thousand by the meeting of the General Association, we will need 576 diplomas to secure it. We know of over one hundred that will graduate in June and quite a number of classes are being organized. This is very encouraging. Our pastors are very vigorously prosecuting the work in many places. We feel quite sure that by January the first, Kentucky will be leading the South in Teacher Training work.

The following States have more diplomas than Kentucky: North Carolina, 753; Mississippi, 667; Texas, 637; Alabama, 538; Tennessee, 451; Georgia, 431; Kentucky, 424.

With the exception of North Carolina (who on account of the large classes in nearly all of their institutions of learning, that have graduated in the last two months, making an increase of nearly 500 in that State) Kentucky has received nearly twice as many diplomas in the past three months as any other State in the Southern Baptist Convention.

The question of thorough gradation and organization and that of teacher training go hand in hand. We trust that the Sunday School workers of Kentucky may be aroused to the importance of better equipment for Sunday School work and that we shall have many individuals all over the State who have not the advantage of the class, who will take up this work in their homes, and that pastors, whether in the cities or the country, will enlist as many workers as possible, and that we shall make a strong pull and that in Kentucky we may have a great corps of trained Christian men and women teachers of God's word in all our Baptist churches.

We appreciate the co-operation of the pastors for these months and we appeal again to the Sunday School folks of Kentucky that we may put forth still greater effort to give to all our beloved State trained teachers.

For July.

The July number of the Monthly, through the kindness of our beloved State Mission Secretary, Dr. W. D. Powell, and our most excellent office secretary and business manager of the Kentucky Mission Monthly, Bro. Wohlbold, will be in the interest of teacher training. If you have a class in your church, please report to us. We want to find out how many people in the State are taking the course. We will present the cuts of several classes that have recently graduated and who will graduate during the month of June, besides giving some very valuable information on the Sunday School work and some contributed articles from Sunday School leaders and pastors.

We hope that every Sunday School worker in the State will receive a copy of this number. Pastors would do well to get the superintendent and teachers to subscribe, that they may be up with the Sunday School work. Any information relative to Teacher Training and any literature will be gladly furnished from this office. Teacher Training Books can also be ordered from us. We are ready to supply you with books and literature for Teacher Training work.

"I was greatly gratified to note Kentucky's splendid offering to missions this year. Congratulations to you. Your untiring devotion to the cause more than anything else under God, achieved the victory."

The Executive Committee of the Ministers' Aid Society desire that funds for old ministers should be sent direct to Dr. J. D. Maddox, Owensboro, Ky.

THE EVERY MEMBER CANVAS.

This is a canvas of every member of the church—man, woman and child—for a contribution every week to the current expenses of the church and to the cause of missions and benevolence.

Kentucky leads in many things and I would love to see us lead in this good work.

Churches must plan wisely when a new house of worship is to be constructed. It is very easy for churches to spend more money than they contemplate at the start. They sometimes wish the Church Building Fund to take a large share of this extravagance.

A CHURCH DEBT.

It is sad to note how lightly the members of a church regard a debt upon it.

Churches should have a conscientious regard for a debt contracted. Many churches and even pastors seem to regard as a trifling matter an obligation taken to pay a stipulated amount at a certain time. This is a grave error.

Missionary J. S. Dunlap sends good reports of the progress of the work at Hyden.

He is visiting the country churches and preaching at school houses. He has a splendid field.

THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION.

There was a great meeting in Jacksonville. There were 1561 messengers present. Dr. E. C. Dargan was elected President. The Convention meets next year at Oklahoma City. The debt on the Foreign Board gave great concern. It will no doubt receive the painstaking attention of the brethren in Richmond. Everything seemed favorable for the largest collection in our history. Strenuous efforts have been made on the homeland to stress the importance of the work. The results on the fields have been phenomenal. The canvass of the churches has been painstaking and thorough, the laymen have exerted themselves, but something is wrong. The Board can no longer put off a careful study of the situation.

The Home Board closed the year free of debt.

The Baptist World Alliance meets June 19th., in Philadelphia. Those wishing to be appointed as delegates will please send their application to this office. More messengers will go from Kentucky than attended the S. B. C.

Pastors and churches must now bring State Missions and Church Building prominently before our congregations. Our work is succeeding but we must have help.

We would be glad to have the name of every pastor who will give us a meeting at some needy point. If possible get your church to pay your railroad expenses.

We need help to support our Sunday School workers. We will have more than one during the Summer. Will you help us?

Hazard church sent good offerings for Home and Foreign Missions. They are erecting a much needed house of worship.

We trust that churches which have been aided by our church building fund will pay amounts now due.

Are you going to the great Baptist Alliance in Philadelphia? You will find the Chesapeake and Ohio the Scenic Route. Always something interesting to see. Then you pass through Virginia and Washington and Baltimore. I am going this route.

We are in sore need of funds for church building. Our people are stirred as never before on the importance of having suitable meeting houses. We dare not refuse some aid where it is needed. Our fund is overdrawn and we must call for immediate relief. Some brethren and sisters could give us large amounts. Others can send us smaller sums. Pastors bring this matter in a suitable manner before your churches, Sunday Schools and Missionary Societies.

We have a letter from an aged minister, who has built twenty-nine church houses and is now undertaking to build the thirtieth. How can we refuse to aid him? The community are poor and deserve help. This brother will give his manual labor, though he is quite feeble. Each new Baptist church is a light-house on the shores of a treacherous sea. We are making solid advance when a house is built. It gives an air of permanencē to the work and inspires confidence in the work of the missionary and furnishes adequate equipment for successful church activity. Pray for us and help us.

I had four calls to aid in dedicating churches on the fourth Sunday in May and I have from two to three calls for each Sunday, for the next two months. Two churches wanted me for next Sunday and two for the Sunday following. We must have funds to help on this good work.

Surely money given for church building, when wisely expended, is treasure laid up in heaven.

Missionary J. L. Dotson has just closed a good meeting at Greenwood, in Southern Kentucky. There were eleven baptisms and two received by letter. They are struggling to secure a house of worship. The Secretary tried to join Bro. Dotson there during the meeting but found it impossible.

OUR WORK.

We supplement the salaries of pastors at weak points; these devote a part of their time to mission points in the vicinity. We employ evangelists. These do much good in building up the waste places and strengthening weak and discouraged churches. These men of God have done much to promulgate our principles and train our people for active, successful service.

Our colporters are carrying Bibles, Testaments, tracts and books which teach our distinctive principles to the homes of the people. Never in the history of our State was more satisfactory work being done in this line. Our church building department is on a constant boom. We aided seventy-four churches in some way last year.

We help churches to get rid of old debts and in numberless ways we render service to the denomination which can not be tabulated. We have two women who labor in Louisville, doing splendid work. We aid five schools in the mountains. We co-operate with several Associations in supporting a missionary or colporter. Our Sunday School Secretary is making good. The tide is rising. We need the united and unstinted support of our entire brotherhood.

Dear Bro. Powell:

Your letter of the 3rd came just in the midst of my greatest pressure of work. I was glad to hear from you. You made a noble fight. No Secretary in the South worked harder than you did. We were disappointed by about $25,000 in receipts, but I am happy that we came clear of debt, even though we achieved this in part by reason of the fact that some of our conditional appropriations were not called for because the conditions were not met and because further we cut off some appropriations for chapel building in Cuba and Panama and for our Mexican work in Texas.

I thank you for your splendid help for Home Missions. The great work is increasing in favor with our people.

Yours hastily and fraternally,

D. B. GRAY,

Corresponding Secretary.

Atlanta, Ga.

THE DEDICATION AT ALBANY.

It was a trip of two days in stage from Burnside to Albany. The weather was unusually hot for May. We had no occasion to be lonesome. There were ten passengers on the inside and eleven on top.

The first night was spent in the hospitable home of Hon. J. H. Shearer, in Monticello. The people are charmed with their pastor, Dr. M. D. Early, and are making an aggressive move.

I was accompanied by Bro. Z. P. Hamilton, who has been called to the care of the church in Albany.

Missionary M. L. Blankenship was pastor when the new church was undertaken. He has resigned and gone to Texas.

We had a splendid day. I made an address to the Sunday School and then preached and raised several hundred dollars on the indebtedness. Then we adjourned to partake of a splendid dinner across the street on the beautiful grass under the overspreading trees. I do not believe that I ever saw as much fried chicken before.

We returned to the church house and completed the amount needed. Then I preached again and the house was dedicated to God's service. Many of God's noble men and devoted women belong to this church. The house cost more than $2,000. There are several good Sunday School rooms. Bro. Hamilton has a fine field of labor.

"THE BAPTIST MESSAGE.

This volume from the press of our Sunday School Board contains a series of thirty-one articles on Baptist doctrines, and makes a neat book of 216 pages. It sells for 50c. The most prominent writers of the articles are Dr. E. Y. Mullins, on "An All-round Baptist View"; J. B. Gambrell, on "The Seat of Authority," and three others; J. M. Frost, on "Baptism in the Christian System," etc.; I. J. Van Ness, on "Denominationalism"; J. W. Porter, on "The World's Debt to the Baptists"; E. E. Folk, on "Baptists in Europe"; R. J. Willingham, on "Do the Heathen Need Our Baptist Message?"; W. W. Landrum, on "Baptist Self-Respect"; J. F. Löve, on "The Limit to Baptist Mission Work."

The majority of the articles ring strong and clear on the fundamental and axiomatic truths, principles and processes of Baptists. Written by different men in different places under different circumstances from different viewpoints, yet they come together in one harmonious whole. All unhesitatingly declare this conviction that Baptists hold the truth and that this truth properly presented will win. The articles by Drs. Gambrell and Landrum are especially worthy. They alone are worth the price of the book. This "Baptist Message" should have a wide circulation.—(Review by M. E. Dodd.)

The C. & O. railroad is offering a number of the most attractive vacation trips I have ever seen, taking one to Washington, Baltimore, down the Potomac or to New York and up the Hudson to Albany, Niagara Falls, across Lake Erie to Detroit, and around to other attractive places and back to Louisville, with a ten-days' stop at each place, allowing sixty days all told, at a marvelously low rate. Mr. R. E. Parsons, Assistant General Passenger Agent, of this city, or any other agent of the company will give any information desired.

KENTUCKY BAPTIST WORKERS' ASSEMBLY, DAWSON SPRINGS, JULY 23-29.

A training school for Sunday School and Mission workers. Educational, inspirational, Spiritual.

Missions, Sunday Schools, Doctrine, Education and Benevolence.

A faculty of lecturers, second to none in the State.

Every church and Sunday School should be well represented and all are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. J. M. Frost will preach on Sunday morning and Secretary Entzminger will speak. In the evening Dr. J. M. Frost will preside over a conference on Sunday School work.

Dr. T. B. Ray will conduct the mission study classes. Secretaries Entzminger and Flake will conduct the Sunday School and Convention Normal classes each morning.

There will be a service at 4:30 in the afternoon and subjects of great interest will be discussed each night.

Dr. J. W. Porter, Dr. M. B. Adams, Elder H. B. Taylor, Dr. S. E. Tull, Dr. J. T. Henderson, President F. D. Perkins, Dr. W. M. Wood, Dr. I. J. Van Ness, Dr. W. W. Landrum, Dr. M. E. Dodd, Dr. W. E. Hunter and other noted speakers will edify and instruct by sermons, lectures, etc.

WEEK-BY-WEEK PLAN OF MISSIONARY OFFERINGS.

These are some of the reasons for it:

1. It is Scriptural. I. Cor. 16:2.
2. It is not selfish. It is not to build itself up, but to evangelize the world. It states clearly the one great end for which churches exist.
3. It is educational—showing the continuity of missionary need and the unity of missionary endeavor.
4. It enlarges the gifts in two ways; many more give and those who give, give more.

5. If generally adopted it would obviate the necessity for borrowing such large sums to carry on our work.

6. It is greatly praised by those who have given it a thorough trial.

7. It would enable pastors and churches to more easily induce their members to give at least one-tenth of their income for the Lord's work.

Missionary Petrey has been aided in a meeting at Hazard, by Evangelist Amerson. There were ten conversions and the church was greatly revived.

Bro. Amerson is now in a meeting at Hellier, on the Big Sandy Railroad.

Bro. Dotson is now holding a meeting at Trimble. This is a very needy field. Spiritual dearth prevails and even the ministers do not seem to be greatly grieved at existing conditions.

These are objects which we report to the W. M. U. at Baltimore. Besides we have our colored missionary, to whom each society is asked to give one dollar, and Mountain Schools and other State Mission work. For the latter we promised Dr. Powell last November to give at least $1,500 in the year, and of this about half has been paid, leaving the rest to be collected by the middle of October.

Kentucky W. M. U. was fifth in the contributions to the above objects this year, being behind Georgia, Virginia, North and South Carolina. Georgia is the only of the four that has more churches. One constant drawback is the number of societies that fail to report to us. Some pastors still do not understand that sending money and reports to the Central Committee can not weaken the churches. We are only an Information Bureau, ready to send out news that will help the cause, and anxious to collect statistics that will be true and reliable. Have you a society that is not on our list? Then you are hindering Kentucky statistics in their aim, and helping to make them untrue. How can we get money enough for the various things the Boards ask of us, unless the societies and churches send it? Here are some of them paying salaries of women missionaries, supporting hospitals in foreign lands, schools, and kindergartens. In our own land, immigrants, mountain schools, church building and Bible fund.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE W. M. U., 1911-1912.

Watchword: Our sufficiency is from God. II. Cor. 3:5.

1. That we set in the forefront of our aims the spiritual deepening of life for all our societies, by the practice of prayer, Bible study, and definite forms of personal service. For direction and suggestions in this last we urge the use of Personal Service Manual, and leaflets prepared by the Personal Service Committee of the W. M. U.

2. That in States where no Standard of Excellence has been adopted, the local societies be asked to adopt the following "Standard of Excellence" for this year, reporting upon it in such a way as to be in line with their State organization's plan:

Standard of Excellence.

(a) At least one meeting a month with a devotional exercise and a definite missionary programme.

(b) An increase in membership during the year of at least 25 per cent of the present number enrolled.

(c) An increase in gifts of not less than 16 per cent of the preceding year's contribution.

(d) Regular reports to State officers each quarter of the year.

(e) One of the denominational magazines or a Calendar of Prayer, subscribed for in each home represented in the missionary organizations.

(f) Observance of the special seasons of prayer for State, Home and Foreign Missions.

(g) At least one Mission Study Class.

(h) An average attendance at regular meetings of a number equal to two-thirds of the membership.

3. College Correspondent.—That we have not only a general College Correspondent of the Union, but one to co-operate with her in each State be elected by the State Executive Boards.

4. Publications.—That we make even more extended use of the leaflets for sale by the Literature Department; that this department be instructed to continue the publishing of the Calendar of Prayer, that the Union continue to publish Our Mission Fields as before. In order, however, to decrease the large and growing expense of supplying it free to more than 10,500 societies, we urge all societies to send a year's subscription for the copy they are now receiving free and to enlarge our subscription list still further among individual members of societies.

5. Margaret Home.—That this Home for Missionaries' Children continue to receive the support and care of the Union, and the current expense fund asked of the societies be as hitherto $1,200 for the year.

6. Training School.—That scholarships provided for students by the State be continued at $200 each, that the current expense fund be, as before, $3,000; that the societies continue, on the basis outlined last year, the creation of the Enlargement Fund of $35,000, while we earnestly expect and seek among men and women of means, large gifts, both for Endowment and Enlargement.

8. Special Objects.—That we concentrate the offerings of the various departments of the Union upon the following objects:

(a) Women's Societies; in Home Missions, work among foreigners and on the Frontier, in Foreign Missions, the support of all women missionaries and of the schools for girls conducted by them.

(b) Y. W. A.; in Home Missions, Mountain School work, in Foreign Missions, medical work, with a moneyed aim for both of $22,500.

if necessary we employ an additional worker paying her traveling expenses, to represent the Union in these meetings.

10. Contributions.—That as we look forward to our moneyed aims we urge anew upon all our women the systematic and proportionate giving of not less than one-tenth of the work of the Kingdom; that for the year 1911-1912 we aim at a total increase of 16 per cent above the gifts to Home and Foreign Missions between aims for Home and Foreign Missions be left to the apportionment committee in a continued session; that this committee shall make a division of these aims in the proportion to be set this year by the S. B. C., and that this part of their report be passed upon by the Executive Committee following the annual meeting. Foreign Missions and Home Missions, $237,500; Margaret Home, $1,200;

Training School, support, $3,000; Training School, enlargement, $7,010; S. S. Board, Bible Fund, $1,500. Total, $250,200.

KENTUCKY BAPTIST SUMMER ASSEMBLY, GEORGETOWN, JULY 3-8.

The programme promises a feast indeed. So many of our finest men to lecture and our State leaders of W. M. U. to hold conferences with the women and children who go. Our new organizer, Miss Dover, will be there, and you can meet her and talk to her about helping in your own field. This will be a great opportunity for full discussion of Woman's Mission Work, in all its branches, and many will find it profitable to go. Reduced rates on the railroads, and board at Rucker Hall for one dollar a day, or four dollars for the whole time, or 35 cents for one meal. Beginning on Tuesday morning, for four days, at 9:15 to 10 p. m., the conferences for Young Women, Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors will be held at different places. On Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 4 o'clock will be the Woman's Mission Societies conference. On Wednesday it is planned to have all the leaders attend and make a short talk, and then the recommendations for the year's work will be discussed. Mrs. J. N. Prestridge will preside. She is now the W. M. U. member of the Board of Directors of the Assembly. Friday afternoon's programme will be specially helpful to Associational Vice Presidents, and others interested in getting up programmes. Mrs. J. W. Stevenson, Vice President of Elkhorn Association, has been asked to preside.

Come for one day, or for the week, and you will be blessed and made a blessing to others.

OUR FIELD WORKER.

Miss Nora Lee Dover is also prepared to help in Sunday School work, and Mr. Entzinger, the Sunday School Secretary for Kentucky, is planning some visits for her to make. This will not interfere with her Woman's Mission work, but the two objects will help each other. Miss Dover's engagements so far are for Owen county, at Lusby's Mills, June 25th, and other places near by in the next week. After the Georgetown meeting she goes to Richmond to spend two weeks in its vicinity, then to Shelby county woman's meeting. In the July number we hope to publish a full list of the Associations Miss Dover will attend. She is anxious to be at work. While Vice Presidents of Associations have been asked to aid Miss Dover in reaching the churches, she is not unwilling to go alone, being rather an experienced traveller, alert and resourceful, easy to get acquainted with, and winning the hearts of those who meet her. She is an earnest Christian and enthusiastic about missions and Sunday Schools. The children will be glad to hear her talk. and

We are anxious for this summer's work to tell in the number of new societies, in reviving those that have declined, and in bringing us many new friends.

As soon as the minutes of W. M. U. appear a copy will be sent to each society in Kentucky. Meantime read in the Baptist papers the accounts of the meeting in Jacksonville.

The World's Baptist Alliance will meet in Philadelphia June 19th, and on the 21st, in the afternoon, will be held a Woman's Meeting. About fifteen Kentucky women have sent in their names and been appointed delegates.
