TITHING.

Home Witness

"I began tithing in debt, am out of debt, and have a surplus."

"I know a man who made a written contract with the Lord to pay a tenth—he was poor; he now gives hundreds of dollars."

"A poor physician made it a rule to tithe his income, he is now the richest Baptist in Eastern Kentucky and gives gladly, and largely."

DEATHLESS TESTIMONY

"I expect to pass through this world but once; if, therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do, to to any fellow human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

Let this be my epitaph:

What I spent I had;

What I saved I left behind;

What I gave away I took with me."

From epitaph on the tomb of Edward Courtenay, the Earl of Devonshire.

SPIRITUALIZING STATISTICS

When the brother who had the gift of spiritualizing statistics told us how many hundreds of billions of dollars were owned by the churches in these United States of America, he referred only to the body of Protestant believers, not including our Roman Catholic brethren. Billions! the thought of them makes most of us dizzy. But the Head of the Church knows the history and ownership of every nickel. To Him we shall answer.

When Morrison, pioneer missionary to China, set sail in 1807, he was asked, "Do you really expect to make an impression on the great Chinese Empire?" "No," was the reply, "but I expect that God will."

RESULTS

He tithes,
And thrives.
He holds
And moulds.

He gives
And lives
He denies
And dies.

$50.00

Will provide the usual traveling expenses of a missionary for six months on his evangelistic tours.

OR it will support a native preacher for a year in China or Africa for four months in Japan or Cuba, for two months in Brazil or Italy.

OR it will support two Bible women in China, or one in Japan, for a year.

OR it will furnish daily Christian instruction for a year to from fifteen to one hundred heathen children in each of our day schools.

OR it will maintain a cot with its ratio of other expenses in our missionary hospitals for a year.

OR it will enable a missionary physician to minister to the suffering people of a populous city or province for an entire month, reproducing the method and purpose of Jesus and opening the way for invaluable spiritual results.

AND it will mean less than a dollar a week to you, or fifteen cents a day.

Phillips Brooks was asked what he would advise if a church were thoroughly disheartened and discouraged with the work of their own field. "I would preach to them a missionary sermon," he replied.

... EDITORIAL ...

W. D. POWELL .....Editor

Pastors, Sunday School Superintendents, Churches, Women's Missionary Societies and all the friends of Missions must exert themselves to their utmost during the remaining days of March and the entire month of April in behalf of Home and Foreign Missions. We have every encouragement to believe that by united effort in every part of our State on the part of our forces will give us a glorious victory. Of course, those who are accustomed to give must give more, for the work is growing, then we must reach a great number who have never shared with us the support of this work in obedience to Christ's positive commands.

Our noble women at this writing lack only $4,000 of reaching their apportionment for Foreign Missions, but they lack $4,800 of raising their apportionment for Home Missions, though they give much less to the latter than they do to the former. We can rely on our godly women to be perfectly fair in the distribution of their gifts for the needs of the Master's cause. Some individuals may be partial in their sympathies, but as a body they will respond according to the calls that come from the General Association and the Southern Baptist Convention. The Master said the Field is the World, and He will not be pleased if we neglect those who are perishing in our own State and our native land and bestow all of our aid upon the lost in the far away country. The soul of a negro in Louisville or New Orleans is worth just as much in the sight of God as the soul of a negro in the jungles of Africa. The Master died for all and it is our plain duty to do our level best to give the gospel to the lost wherever they may be found. Kentucky Baptists are giving this year $32,000 to Home Missions and $46,000 to Foreign Missions. We must pray incessantly, and we must be untiring in our exertion until the books close at 10 o'clock on the night of April 30th. All who have funds on hand will please forward them and not wait until the entire amount they propose to give has been secured.

During the past twenty years twenty-six leaves of as many Greek New Testaments have been discovered which corroborate the authenticity of the New Testament. Tertian's Harmony of the four gospels written in the year 150 has been discovered. Tertian accepted the four gospels though he was a heretic. More light has been thrown on the authenticity of the New Testament in the past twenty years than in 1,500 years preceding. Dr. Coburn, of Pennsylvania, one of our leading American scholars is devoting much time to this work and recently delivered two very interesting lectures in Louisville.

Dr. T. B. Ray reports much progress in securing funds for the Judson Centennial. A large part of that which was to be given for China has already been provided. Little has been done for Japan, South America, and nothing for Mexico. Some amounts have been given for Africa, nothing has been given for the work in Italy. These will no doubt be attended to later on. The Missionary needs, and should have, proper equipment furnished him.

THE STATE MISSION BOARD.

The quarterly meeting was held with Fourth Avenue church, this city, on March 3rd. The various committees met on the evening of March 2nd. All applications for aid were duly and prayerfully considered. The members of the Board were distressed that the churches are not furnishing the means adequate to the necessities of our territory. Here is a church struggling for existence which has called a good man as pastor but find themselves unable to support him without some outside aid. Here is a church that must have a house of worship. They are poor and are unable to supply themselves with a suitable workshop unless some elder brother comes to their aid. They appeal to the Board for help. Some twenty-five churches ask help of the State Board on meeting houses they are about to build. The amounts they indicate as needing are thousands of dollars more than the Board has at its command. The Corresponding Secretary was instructed to call upon the churches for at least $10,000 for immediate use. This is a most worthy benevolent and men and women of means ought to cheerfully give largely to it.

OUR AIM—2,000 New Subscriptions and Renewals to Kentucky Mission Monthly, Home Field, and Foreign Mission Journal, during March and April.

THE GRACE OF GIVING.

There is a rising tide of liberality throughout the South. We are delighted to see it manifesting itself in various parts of our own State. There is need for greater strength to be developed in this line which will enable us to carry the good cause to higher heights. Prayer, reading the word of God and meditation will be most helpful to us. The abundance of liberality calls forth many unworthy and undeserving people who would feast upon our treasure. Our gifts should be safe guarded from reckless intrusion and unwarranted waste. A self-appointed collector was going the rounds recently and I heard a good Baptist say, "I gave him $5 just to get rid of him." This act was injurious to the spirit of Christian liberality. Willingness to bestow gifts upon worthy and deserving objects is very sensitive and needs cultivation. It craves to be dealt with in tenderness and love. It closes its petals like a sensitive plant to the rude touch and dictatorial spirit of a self-appointed canvasser. Even authorized agents can mar if not destroy the spirit of benevolence by campaigning the churches today. Those who can impart information, inspiration and enthusiasm for the varied interest of Christ's cause may be welcomed by the church and pastor, but the gathering of funds and the working out of the details of how and when it should be done must be left to the God-appointed instrumentality, the Pastor and the Church.

OUR MISSION JOURNALS.

We are proud of the number of journals, State, Home and Foreign, which circulate in Kentucky. We possibly lead all the States in subscriptions to the Home Field and the Foreign Mission Journals. These monthlies are filled with interesting and important facts regarding the various phases of Home and Foreign Mission work. Each pastor should, from time to time, urge upon his members to subscribe to the three journals at the remarkably low price of only 60 cents per annum. It is often well to appoint some wide awake woman to take subscriptions. In circulating this literature, we are fostering the interests of Missions.

To get a true perspective of any movement, we must view it as a whole. The increase in our financial gifts should be in keeping with the increase in our numerical strength. The grace of giving has grown rapidly during recent years, but multitudes of our members have not been reached and thousands of others do not give systematically and proportionately as the New Testament requires. The willingness to part with the funds which have been accumulated by the sweat of one's brow depends largely upon spirituality.

We must either organize—"elicit, combine and direct," or agonize—discourage, confuse, and scatter our forces. A great cloud of agents and agencies claiming the same right of approach to our people as those who have been duly appointed and sent forth can only lead to disaster. The organized work in our State is firmly entrenched in the affections of our people, and there was never a day when there was more of unity of heart and purpose than at the present time. The gospel makes us debtor to all men, and through the hearty co-operation of our churches and pastors we must perform the task assigned us. We hear the cry from the doomed of this earth saying, "What shall we do to be saved?" To all our reply must be, "Repent and be baptized everyone of you in the name of Jesus Christ."

We need in Kentucky a well equipped Baptist Hospital, but it is useless to launch the undertaking until we have at least $250,000 in sight. It will require at least $500,000 to start an institution that would worthily represent the Baptists of Louisville and Kentucky.

Louisville has one of the most modern hospitals to be found anywhere. It cost $1,000,000.

STATE MISSIONS.

State Missions constitutes the very foundation of Baptist growth in all the States. The work has yielded such large returns that we find the Baptists the strongest religious force in nearly every Southern State. In Kingdom building evangelization must ever be made prominent. If the heart beat of Kentucky Baptists ever becomes weak on State Missions it will manifest itself by a decline in all of the denominational interests which we foster. Enthusiasm in bringing the lost to Christ will ever constitute the surest index of denominational life. We are gradually moving forward in our great Commonwealth. Many strategic places have been occupied in the past few years and self-denying men are undertaking to conquer others with New Testament truth. The present year we have undertaken a stupendous task in our State Mission work. It calls for enlarged gifts. We trust that our pastors and churches who have stood so loyally by us and made possible the victories we have obtained will see that streams of money are kept flowing into our treasury so that we may promptly meet the obligations which are upon us.

“This is an auspicious day for Baptists. It is a day when the whole world is turning toward democracy, both in religion and in Government. Individualism is everywhere the battle cry of progress. There has never been such a time for the free preaching of the simple messages of Jesus and His Apostles. The day for which our Baptist fathers waited and suffered and died dawned. The insistent cause from every part of the world for light ought to move us mightily to redouble our energies and multiply our activities, in the world-wide spread of the full gospel of peace and liberty.”

Missionary H. C. Combs reports a splendid meeting at London. Twelve were baptized; the attendance on the Sunday School has gone to 225; chairs have to be placed in the aisles and not infrequently people are turned back at the doors. All of this is very encouraging. The Holy Rollers did great harm to the cause of Christ for a period of years in London.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE VERSUS THE BIBLE.

This is a very readable book consisting of six sermons by Pastor M. P. Hunt, of this city. The treatment is brief but makes very manifest the false doctrine of Mrs. Eddy, which is sanctioned neither by the word of God nor common sense. It sells for 25 cents a copy and may be had through the author or any of our Baptist publication houses. Its circulation will do great good in checking this ism which has led so many astray.

Pastor, if you are in need of denominational tracts which would strengthen your people in the faith, or that would lead others to become acquainted with the principles held by Baptists, we would be pleased to correspond with you. It is the purpose of the State Board to sow down Kentucky in gospel tracts that will be helpful in leading sinners into the true way confirming the saints in the faith and teaching them to observe all things which our Master has commanded.

Any who wish to add to this important undertaking will please send us a remittance for our Tract Fund.

We hear encouraging reports of the fine work being done by Rev. F. R. Walters in the mission rallies which are now being held in our State. These meetings will continue until early in April. Pastors, Superintendents and Laymen should attend these meetings when held at points convenient to them. The information and inspiration imparted will be very helpful in pushing the work through the year.

Rev. James L. Dotson has held two meetings in Baptist Association, and done some fine constructive work. The churches have been well nigh wrecked by a migratory preacher who has since landed in the fold of the Disciples. The church at Battle had thirteen additions. They have decided to buy or sell the half interest in a union house so as to have a house for their own. This is a wise move and if it is necessary the State Board will gladly extend some aid.

"HELP THOSE WOMEN WHICH LABORED IN THE GOSPEL."—PAUL.

The women of the South gave to all Missions the past year $290,728.72. This is a glorious achievement. It is the result of only twenty-five years of organized systematic effective work. The success of the past is only a prophecy of the stupendous results which will be reported a few years hence. The work is done in a womanly way and in perfect harmony with the spirit and teachings of the New Testament. They are disposed to view with impartial interest all phases of the great cause of Missions. They do not overlook the distressing destitution that prevails in our respective States, nor are they deaf to the urgent appeals for liberal aid to the work in our homeland, while they pile high their love gifts for the carrying of the gospel to the ends of the earth. They have been hampered in their work in our beloved State for want of the co-operation and sympathy of our pastors. Some feared that they might do violence to the New Testament teachings regarding women speaking to mixed assemblies. Others felt that they had reasons to believe that they would be unfair in the distribution of their gifts, and while giving lavishly to Missions in Italy, Syria, and China, they would overlook the thousands of "Dagoes," "Sheenies," and "Chinks," at our very doors. Time has proven that these fears are not well founded. They are modest and humble, yet painstaking and untiring in performing the task which lies before them. They impart information; they show great wisdom and tact in the literature they send forth. The words failure and discouragement are unknown to them, and a spirit of prayer and consecration marks their every movement. The General Association and State Board are in sympathetic accord with the work they are trying to do. Every encouragement has been accorded them and we have cheerfully undertaken to respond to their every request. The results have been most gratifying. We most cordially commend the work of the W. M. U. so worthily represented by Mrs. Kate Coleman Hinkle, the splendid Corresponding Secretary to the churches and pastors of our beloved State.

seven hundred to enroll. All those who came showed their earnestness and determination by doing most effective work. We had a very strong faculty and they rendered magnificent service in teaching their different departments and the members of the classes were loud in their praise of the work done.

West Kentucky Sunday School Convention

The West Kentucky Sunday School Convention will hold its annual session at Hopkinsville, Ky., April 14th, 15th and 16th, 1914. The host of the convention will be the First Church, Hopkinsville, Dr. C. M. Thompson, pastor. Dr. Thompson and his people are expecting a large attendance and therefore let every Sunday School send messengers. The program for the convention will be out the early part of next week and a copy of same will be mailed to any one upon application to this office.

REMEMBER THE DATE AND PLACE—April 14-16,—Hopkinsville.

Kentucky Baptist Workers Assembly

The attention of all Christian workers is called to the fact that the Kentucky Baptist Workers Assembly will hold its fifth annual session at Dawson Springs, June 26th to July 3rd, 1914. A great program is being prepared.

The following are some of the speakers who will be present:

Dr. J. B. Gambrell, editor of the Baptist Standard, and Mr. H. Z. Duke, both of Dallas, Texas; Dr. C. B. Williams, of the Southwestern Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas; Mr. Arthur Flake, Secretary of the B.Y.P.U. of the South, East of the Mississippi River, Baldwin, Miss; Miss Margaret A. Frost, Elementary Specialist, Nashville, Tenn; Dr. W. D. Powell, Cor. Secy. of the Baptist State Board of Missions, and Dr. F. B. Perkins, Secretary of the Baptist Educational Society, both of Louisville, Ky., and other interesting speakers. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Scholfield will be present the entire time and will have charge of the music.

Georgetown Assembly

The Seventh Annual Session of the Georgetown Assembly will be held at Georgetown, Ky., July 6th to 10th, 1914. The committee in charge is working to make it the greatest in the history of the assembly.

This year we will have with us again Dr. Lincoln Hulley, president of the Stetson University, DeLand, Fla., who greatly delighted the people last year; Brethren Arthur Flake and L. P. Leavell will be on hand to present the B.Y.P.U. and Sunday School work. This is all that is necessary to say as they are well known to the workers of the State. Some of the other speakers as well as those who will have a part on the program are Dr. C. B. Williams, Fort Worth, Texas; Miss Margaret A. Frost, Elementary Specialist, Nashville, Tenn; Dr. T. M. Hawes of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville; Dr. C. M. Thompson, Hopkinsville, Ky; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Scholfield will also be present at the Georgetown Assembly and will have charge of the music. The Highland Male Quartette of Louisville will be with us for one evening.

Round trip tickets will be sold to Georgetown for the above occasion, tickets to be sold July 5th to 9th inclusive, final limit July 14th, on basis of four cents per mile for the round trip. We are authorized to advertise this rate and are glad to say it is the usual one we have always procured.

Mr. Newton T. Barnes begins this month his work as B. Y. P. U. Secretary. He is sent forth and sustained by the State Board. We ask for him a cordial reception by our churches in every part of the State. He is capable and consecrated, and will prove a blessing to any church or pastor where his lot may be cast. We request the various B.Y.P.U. organizations in the State to contribute to the support of this our first Secretary, as he goes forth to promote the interest of this work and to solve the problem which may be presented to him.

LOOK HOW WE STAND.

During the last ten months we have received, Foreign Missions, $6,425.35, which includes $2,113.54 Christmas Offering; Home Missions, $2,158.66, which includes $313.12 for Mountain Schools; Training School, $741.34; S. S. B., $98.48.

Our apportionment is—Foreign Missions, $10,440; Home Missions, $6,960; Training School, $1,229.87; S. S. B., $100.

We have still to raise in order to meet our apportionment—Foreign Missions, $4,014.65; Home Missions, $4,801.34; Training School, $488.53; S. S. B., $152. Total $9,306.04.

Mrs. Hinkle writes very encouraging letters about her work in the conference, and seems to think that great good will be the result.

At the Brandenburg meeting Mrs. J. R. Willett was elected superintendent of Salem Association, and she will begin work at once. Five pastors expressed a willingness to have societies organized and to aid societies promised to add a missionary programme and send contributions.

Mrs. Melloo, of Mayfield, resigned as superintendent of Graves County Association, owing to lack of time. She has been very zealous and deeply interested in the Lord's work and we trust she will aid whenever possible. Mrs. Mary Landrum, of Mayfield was elected, and warmly recommended for the position.

Miss Rebecca Price, superintendent of Tate's Creek Association, has resigned, and her successor will be elected at the approaching conference in Richmond, where the pastor is kindly making all the arrangements. It is hoped that each society will be represented by its president. At Fulton Mrs. Hinkle found an enthusiastic, wide-awake Society of forty-six members grown from sixteen last November, when Miss Mallory visited them on her way to the Jubilate at Paducah. They will go beyond their apportionment. Mayfield has raised its apportionment from $110 to $650, a splendid performance. At Princeton a number of new members were enlisted, and their apportionment more than doubled. At Henderson a hundred and fifty women came through snow and sleet, seven societies being represented, and much enthusiasm was shown. The full apportionment was pledged and one woman promised to add fifty dollars to what her society gave, if they reached their mark.

At Lexington ten societies sent ninety-six representatives, who were greatly helped and encouraged by the visit of Miss Mallory and Mrs. Hinkle, and in Louisville twenty-two societies reported at the conference. Miss Mallory's presence was a rare treat and an inspiration to fuller consecration, while other addresses were much appreciated. Miss Grace W. Landrum told by request how the Broadway Sunday School gives to Missions, and Mrs. W. O. Carver gave reasons for observing the week of prayer for Home Missions. Mrs. Hinkle spoke on reaching our aims for the Home and Foreign Boards. May all our women feel a solemn responsibility to give more to our various objects. Read again the figures at the beginning, and see where you have come short. Let your prayers ascend to the Father of gifts that He may pour out a blessing upon us, a blessing of hearts and lives and purses consecrated to his service.

Home Mission Week was intended to be the first week in March, but it is not too late now to gather together for prayer and study and giving for the work of the Home Mission Board. We should give $4,800 more by April 25th if we give what the Board has asked of us.

MISSIONARY DAY IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

April 12th is to be a great day for the children. It is their opportunity to make a record for enthusiastic giving to the Home and Foreign Boards. Each teacher should study, pray, and tell to the class the most interesting facts she can find to awaken their love for missionary giving. Study your Bible for missionary texts and stories, study the lives of great missionaries, study events in the world today. Bring all your powers to bear on this one thing, educating and stimulating the children on missionary lines. The money will come in if this preliminary work is done, and the young people will taste the joy of giving to the Lord.

THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

How many stay-at-homes there are among our church members! How many must stay to nurse the sick, care for little ones, or because of feeble health. But they may be members of the Sunday School. One-half hour's study of the Sunday School lesson each week is the sole condition, and help is furnished to each one enrolled. The Home Department Quarterly gives brief, pointed and practical paragraphs on the lesson, for every day in the week. If father and mother will study these lessons they will be far more interested in their children's attendance at Sunday School, and more anxious for them to be prepared, so they may really learn something about the Bible. Let each school begin this Home Department by choosing some suitable person as superintendent, who will appoint helpers and canvas the church and neighborhood for members. Write to the Sunday School Board at Nashville, Tenn., for samples of these supplies, as well as all others needed in your school. "Kind Words," our Sunday School paper, might well be read by the oldest as well as the young people in the family. Bright stories are mingled with well written articles about real things, and the missionary pages are of thrilling interest. E. S. B.

of Georgia gave $45,938.15. The women of Texas gave $35,771.69, while the gifts of our noble Kentucky women reached the sum of $19,266.10. It will be a great deal more this present year. These women labor with us in the gospel. Let them have our prayerful and hearty co-operation.

Each year finds their plan of work more complete in its adaptation to the needs of our field. In Georgia there are 2,400 churches and 1,394 have a Woman's Missionary Society in some form. Several hundred new societies should be organized in this State during the year. The growth of woman's work along all lines has been most gratifying. Their financial showing is most encouraging. The spirit of God guides them and their wise human leadership.

MISSIONS AND EDUCATION.

Giving the Gospel to the world is the supreme work of Christ's people. That is the end, and education is one of the means to that end. As a means it is very important but never can be considered as important as the great end to which it contributes. Every loyal and intelligent Baptist believes in Christian education. Every church in Kentucky ought to contribute to Christian education, but the collection ought to be taken separate from the offering for Missions. Since Missions and education are not one and the same thing, it is not right to take a part of money given for education and turn it over to Missions, neither is it right for a church to take a part of the offering that has been made to Missions and give it to education.

We are gratified to know that State-wide prohibition will prevail in West Virginia after July 1st. It is alleged that this is the motive for a bill now before the Legislature to divide Pike county and create a new county with the county seat on the West Virginia line to furnish a dumping ground for the breweries and liquor interests of West Virginia. The friends of temperance throughout the State should urge the members of the Legislature to look well into this matter.

The scope of our work continually enlarges. We are compelled to follow up the new railroads that are being projected through our mountain country, and the new mining towns which rise as by magic in the night. We need at this time a number of able gospel preachers who are willing to endure hardness and go forth as kingdom builders. Such men are ready to volunteer to go to foreign land; why not be equally concerned where the needs are almost as great, and where one need not waste years in acquiring another language?

Dr. W. C. Golden, a Kentuckian, who succeeded so grandly as Corresponding Secretary in Tennessee for a period of years, has located as pastor in Palm Avenue church, in Tampa, Fla.

If you need colportage books, Bibles, Testaments, gospels, tracts, and good literature write to this office and we will be delighted to supply you.

THE GENESIS OF MISSIONS AND MISSION WORK.

The atonement is the basis for our Missionary operations. The fact that Christ died for our sins, and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world. The book of Jonah is a plea for world-wide Missions.

The promise to Abraham and the expression of prophet after prophet goes to show God's concern for the lost wherever they may be found. The first Missionary work that was done by Baptists in the South was in the vicinity of Charleston, S. C. The Baptists were the first to erect a house of worship in that city and State. William Screven was the pastor until 1706, when he resigned the pastorate at Charleston and gave himself to Missionary work in the destitute settlements. The first Baptist church established in Virginia was about 1714. It is claimed that there were Baptists in North Carolina in 1695. It would seem that Baptist churches existed prior to that time.

It is remarkable how many men who are prominent in Baptist affairs in other States once lived and labored in Kentucky. Dr. R. C. Buckner, now at the head of the greatest Baptist Orphanage in the world at Dallas, Texas, was once pastor in Albany and Salvisa. He went to Texas as did many other distinguished people. We have in mind a Baptist minister in an obscure mountain town whose garden was invaded by a vicious hog belonging to a neighbor. The pastor lost his temper at the destruction wrought and threw an ax at the hog. This created much town talk so that the minister went west and became a distinguished pastor on the other side of the river, and his name is well known throughout the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention. But for the incident of the hog, the man might have lived, preached and died in his isolation, as hundreds of other servants of God have done.

Missionary Giles C. Taylor reports a good meeting at Ivyton. There were ten accessions. He has engagements extending far into the summer.

Dr. J. J. Bennett, the splendid Corresponding Secretary of Georgia, has been laid aside by a nervous breakdown for three months. Dr. S. B. Rogers, the capable Secretary in Florida, has been laid aside much of the time for the past year. The work of a Secretary is very taxing and that which consumes most is the weight of a great responsibility. The beloved Dr. Willingham has not been able to go to his office for many months.

Brother Pastor, will you not speak a kind word for the three Mission Journals and request one or more of your members to take subscriptions to them at the astounding low rate of 60 cents per annum. Their circulation does much to foment the cause of Missions.

We feel sure that only good results will follow the Men's Convention, which is being held in this city.

In the United States we have an ordained minister for every 594 of our population. In Africa there is one minister to every 82,152; Korea, 123,111; Japan, 172,538; South America, 195,835; India, 231,448; and in China, 476,462. The Baptists have the men and the means to largely reinforce their workers in a non-Christian countries.

Mexico, for example, with its 14,000,000 people, has only 249 representatives of Evangelical Christianity. Central America including Panama, has only 96 missionaries of all kinds. South America with 49,000,000 inhabitants, has only 881 missionaries.

Our Mission Monthly is the property of the Baptists of Kentucky, and is intended to impart useful information in regard to Missions and Sunday School work. We urge pastors and Mission workers to aid us in extending its circulation. Our endeavor is to make it self-supporting, and we would greatly appreciate it if those in arrears would send us their subscriptions. It requires 50 cents to secure the Home Field and Foreign Mission Journals, even at club rates, while 60 cents pays for the three journals. This is a cheap combination. Either of the journals single is 25 cents.
