MONTHLY

The field is the world.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

If ye love me, keep my commandments.

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me.

If a man love me he will keep my words: and my Father will love him.

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

THE BIG SANDY.

Leaving Louisville Dec. 15th, the Secretary, by order of the Board, started to Bowen, in Powell county. We have had a small organization there for several years but we are not making much progress. There are many difficulties in the way, the greatest of which is the indifference and inefficiency of the Baptists themselves. Returning to Winchester, then going by the way of Ashland Saturday morning 17th, we reached Paintsville. Here we found Bro. Argabrite, the State Evangelist, aiding Pastor Martin in a meeting. Worshipped with them in afternoon, at night went on to Prestonburg, the county seat of Floyd, and the point where all passenger trains stop at present on the Big Sandy R. R. We have no church here and very few people who ever claim to be Baptists, though a number are of Baptist belief.

Here the Presbyterians have a school with a fairly good building, though another school styled Kentucky Normal College, belonging to stockholders, has a larger patronage. The stockholders would like to sell if they could get their price, which I think unreasonably high.

The Methodists kindly allowed us to preach in their house Sunday morning and night, also Monday night. Tuesday, 20th, in company with Bro. R. L. Baker, we started for Pikeville, 28 miles farther up the river, in an open spring wagon drawn by two old white mules. At the half-way house we had a sumptuous dinner for 25 cents, paid our driver a dollar each and took another wagon much like the first. We reached Pikeville about dusk. Our appointment had miscarried and there was no preaching that night. Appointment was circulated for preaching Wednesday afternoon and night. There was a minstrel show at night and they got the crowd. We had a very good hearing in the afternoon and the audiences were of a very high order of intelligence.

Pikeville is by far the best town on the Big Sandy. Quite a number of intelligent Baptists in the town and they say seventy-five per cent of the country are united Baptists. Very few hardshells. Here the harvest is ripe, the people are anxious, and we must enter the field at once. The Presbyterians have here a very good school building, but a small school. Returning Bro. Baker preached to a small audience at Prestonburg. Thence we struck for home.

We greatly appreciate the following from Dr. Graves:

"Dear Brother: Please find my renewal, 25 cents, enclosed for the Mission Monthly. The November number is freighted with interesting and absorbing information about State Missions. I consider that this one number is easily worth a year's subscription. With best wishes, I am fraternally yours, A. C. GRAVES.

CHURCH BUILDING.

There is a story of a preacher entering a new field. The first Sunday he preached upon a certain theme relating to some line of Christian duty. During the following week he visited among his people and the following Sunday he preached the same sermon. Again he mingled and talked with the people and the next Sunday he preached the same sermon again. They thought perhaps the first repetition was only a lapse of memory, but after he had preached the same sermon the third time they asked him if he was aware of the fact. He assured them he was, "but," said he, "I find you are not practicing it. I mean to give you that lesson until you learn it, to preach that sermon until you practice it." Well, here is the same old subject, Church Building, the necessity of the case demands that we call your attention to it till you take it, work. Brethren, we must have funds to prosecute this work or suffer incalculable loss to our cause. Indeed we have already suffered more than we can tell. Several other denominations have a "Church Extension Fund," and others appeal to their wealthy brethren in the North and they are able to enter and hold fields even where Baptist principles predominate. Several mountain towns have congregations of other denominations made up largely of Baptist people under the specious plea of "No difference," and the ignorant prejudice against changing (even when you are changing from wrong to right), and the specious plea and popular prejudice against restricted communion, and our just opposition to alien immersion makes it much harder to undo the work of false teachers than in the beginning, to take and hold the people who rightly belong to us. Now brethren, if you are willing your people shall know of this need and this work I shall be glad to make a date with you. As to a collection or pledge, I leave that entirely with the pastor and the church. If you are at all in sympathy with this effort, let me hear from you. Yours,

J. G. Bow, Cor. Sec.

STATE MISSIONS.

There are a hundred places in Kentucky where the residents will tell you, "This is the most important mission point in the state." Really there are more than a hundred very important points which ought to be sustained by our Board. The Board will be delighted to do this greatly needed work if the Baptists of Kentucky will furnish the money. Why is it so many people can not see the crying needs of our cause at home? Our great state is a part of the world, is included in the Master's commission. Is exceedingly needy, is suffering from our neglect. Nothing the Lord requires of us is more important than State Missions. Kentucky Baptists ought to lead in every good work. The rapid strides of other states ought to provoke us to good works.

Bro. J. L. Adkins writes: "We have received five by letter since the dedication at Russell Springs. We want a meeting the first or second week in January."

J. G. BOW,.....Corresponding Secretary

The blue mark by your name on your paper means your time has expired, and you are kindly asked to renew. Help carry the work.

Remember we will send the
"Mission Monthly," the "Foreign Mission Journal," and the "Home
Field" one year for 50 cts.

With this issue we enlarge the Kentucky Mission Monthly and change the make up of the paper to the magazine form. The price for single subscriptions will remain at 25 cents per annum, but the club rates will be 20 cents per copy in clubs of ten or more.

We would like to have a brief communication every month from each state missionary, colporter and each missionary society. I mean you. Will you send it? All communications for the Monthly Should reach this office by the last Monday in the month.

We want all our pastors, and everybody interested in missions, and certainly all of our state missionaries, to remember that people can not be interested in that about which they are not informed. Most of our people know very little about missions, especially State Missions, hence the lack of interest in this work. The only way to interest your people in missions is to give them information about mission work. The way to give them information is to have them read the mission journals especially, and our religious weeklies.

Kentucky Baptists give more than twice the amount to Foreign and Home Missions, that they give to State Missions. Why?
Because they take and read the Foreign Mission Journal and the Home Field.

They are supplied with tracts on Home and Foreign Missions by all our colporters, women's societies, pastors and boards, while we lack these agencies in State Missions.

We would not have you to give less to Foreign Missions or Home Missions, but we earnestly contend that State Mission work is equally in the commission and is of equal importance in the eyes of Him who said, "The field is the world."

Little has been done to give information to our people about State Missions. My dear brother, my sister, will you help by giving the Mission Monthly a wide circulation among your people?

Remember, we will send the Kentucky Mission Monthly, the Home Field and the Foreign Mission Journal one year for 50 cts., or ten copies of the Kentucky
Mission Monthly for $2.00.

The Kentucky Mission Monthly is authorized and endorsed by the State Board of Missions. Would it not help you and your church to better understand State Missions? Send us a check at once.

MISSIONARIES AND THEIR FIELDS.

L. D. Sandlin, Oneida, is connected with J. A. Burns' school. He reports 9 sermons.

J. R. Stewart was pastor at Hazlewood, in West Kentucky Association. He has not reported for several months.

M. E. Staley is the efficient pastor at Uniontown. He reports 26 conversions and 26 baptisms.

H. M. Shouse, Berea, has labored under many difficulties. He resigns the work.

J. G. Parsons, Hindman and Whitesburg. He holds forth at these two county seats. He is building a church house at the former.

Eben G. Vick, Second church, Bowling Green, has accomplished much during his pastorate there. A debt of $1,500 has been provided for, and the church brought up in efficiency. The membership greatly increased. He reports 8 conversions and 4 baptisms.

A. Logan Vickers, Ludlow, has had one of the knottiest problems in the state. The church was weak and discouraged and in debt so badly that they were ready to despair of ever succeeding. By patient, persistent effort and countless sacrifices Bro. Vickers has held up the work. The debt is greatly reduced and work prosperous. They need and deserve liberal aid to finish payment on their house. He reports 13 conversions and 5 baptisms.

Dr. J. W. Warder has charge of the Institute work in the state. Most of his efforts have been among the colored people.

T. J. Watts is pastor at Logan street, Louisville. They need a much larger building and are planning to build. He reports 40 conversions and 8 baptisms.

Dr. Luke P. V. Williams is pastor at Farmer's, in Rowan county. He reports 5 conversions and 12 baptisms.

W. C. Wood is pastor at Preston street Mission. This is a mission of Broadway church. He reports no conversions.

W. M. Riddle labored as special missionary during summer in Central Association. He reported 33 conversions.

J. W. Mahan, Harlan. Bro. M. has held this field for many years. Is doing a steady, substantial work. He reports 4 conversions and 6 baptisms.

J. B. Ferrell has been for years our missionary at Liberty, county seat of Casey county. Resigned last August and is succeeded by W. G. Tilford, who has recently entered upon that work.

Bro. J. R. Hunt writes: "Plum Spring is doing well. They have weekly prayer meeting and Sunday school. Good attendance at our Saturday meetings. When it gets too muddy to walk some cannot come as they have no other way to get to church.

The time of many of our subscribers has expired. Some of them are more than two years behind. Will you please renew? Occasionally some post master will send us an official card saying "The paper addressed to Mr. — remains dead in this office. Reason—refused." Not many people, we are glad to say, are so unmindful of their obligations as to do such a thing. If for any reason you want the paper stopped, then at least have the honesty to pay up your arrears and notify us to discontinue and the paper will always be stopped promptly. If you really do not intend to pay for it, say so, and we will stop it and give you no further trouble.

THIRTY-SIXTH AND GRAND AVENUE.

About six months ago I began work at this place. The people were so unorganized that it required some time to bring them to a realization of their duty toward each other, toward the church and toward their God. But thanks be to God after some time the spark of love was rekindled in their hearts and to-day I know of no people more loyal to King Immanuel than our people at Thirty-sixth and Grand.

While our prayer-meetings are not so well attended, nor our Sunday evening services very crowded, yet since June the enrollment has more than doubled. With an enrollment of eighty we have an average attendance of about fifty. And still they come. While our attendance at church is not so encouraging, I feel that if it is made up for in interest. In my regular pastoral visiting I called upon a very elderly lady, seventy-nine years of age. I learned that she was an old servant of the Lord Jesus, but I was surprised to learn that no pastor had ever called upon her for fifteen years. What are our pastors doing? ! Preaching the Gospel. But why should we neglect our pastoral visitation? May God help us that we do not forget our people in their homes. Your brother in Christ,

J. A. HEILIG.

Dear Brother: Our work here is moving along nicely. The debt on our building is being gradually wiped out. Ludlow was the banner church of our Association (North Bend) the past year in offerings, per member, for all work. Our average for missions was $2.11, and for other work $6.69. The Lord has greatly blessed us and the outlook is hopeful. Have been sick for four weeks, but the work has gone on, under the preaching of Brethren W. R. Hutton and W. R. Elliston. Fraternally.

A. LOGAN VICKERS.

Ludlow, Ky.

Latonia, Ky., Dec. 4, 1904.—

Dear Dr. Bow: The work at Latonia is increasing both in membership and interest. Ten additions last month, 9 by letter and 1 baptized. We are putting forth a great effort to pay the remaining indebtedness on our building by January 1st.

Our Sabbath school is well attended—average attendance 80, since the middle of October, when I came here as pastor. Latonia is one of the many fields of importance, and we hope to soon see great results from our labors. Pray for us. J. W. BEAGLE.

FROM J. W. EDWARDS.

Dear Brother: I will give you some information in regard to my field. Benton church, in Mercer county, was torn to pieces by the Modern Sanctificationists. Four years ago they called me to the pastorate of the church. I held a meeting with them in September which resulted in 40 additions to the church. I had the house covered new and the windows fixed. In October I held a meeting with Friendship church in Casey county, where I have been pastor for 16 years. Results, 23 additions and organized a good Sunday school.

We are erecting a good house here. It is complete except weatherboarding and seating. I also held a meeting with Grove church, Casey county. Results, 9 additions. We have secured six acres of ground and erected a house of worship here. This is finished except ceiling and seating.

I held a meeting one week with Salem church, Casey county. Results, two additions, had to close on account of sickness in the community.

We have a good Sunday school at Grove with 96 pupils.

I also secured two acres of ground here for a building lot for $20, and have the promise of logs to saw the lumber. We sorely need some help to finish these houses. Your brother,

J. W. EDWARDS.

KENTUCKY MISSION MONTHLY:

I send you a few items from the Gateway City. This is one of the important points of Eastern Kentucky. The completion of Lock No. 1 at the mouth of the Big Sandy a few weeks ago was an important event to this city. Slack water up the Big Sandy means much to this city. This is the market for the lumber and timber for all that vast valley. They sell their timber here, buy their goods and boat them up the river. Our wholesale houses do a thriving business. Our city is full of those people sometimes for weeks, hence the necessity of a strong Christian sentiment here. They are Baptist in sentiment. We are moving along nicely. The Lord is blessing the work. An increased interest in both Sunday school and preaching services. We want to put the Monthly in every home after Christmas.

Yours, W. McMILLAN.

LANDMARK ASSOCIATION.

Dear Dr. Bow: Landmark Association lies in Estille county, with three churches in the southeast part of Madison county, and one church in Jackson county, in all 12 churches, with a membership of 1,226. Our churches need development and the pastors are mostly to blame for the condition of affairs in our associations. There are 12 churches and only 5 have pastors, and these brethren are afraid to talk missions. There is not a church that pays over $25 per year for pastor's salary. But the churches are not to blame, but the pastors are. Brethren, pray for this work and for me in my work and may the great Head of the church guide us in all things. Respectfully,

J. T. TURPIN.

FROM E. L. CRAIG.

Dear Brother Bow: I thought a few lines from this part of the state might be of interest to your readers.

I am still a colporter, have been employed to do colportage work in connection with my pastoral work, in Daviess county Baptist Association. I am pastor of Mt. Pleasant church, six miles from Rumsey, for one-fourth time; also preach one Saturday and Sunday in Rumsey, which is a mission of Mt. Pleasant church. I am raising money to finish our church house in Rumsey.

I have also been called at Onton for one-fourth time, and I am to preach at Ashbyburg, which is a mission of Onton church, one Saturday and Sunday. At Onton is our new organization, and we have to build a new house here.

This is a fine country, and a great territory for the Baptists, and we need more preachers here. Wishing the editor and readers of the Monthly a happy and prosperous New Year, I am yours in the faith,

E. L. CRAIG.
