HOW CAN YOU HELP.

The Mission Monthly must have 10,000 subscriptions. Will you help? Here are some ways.

1. Make some friend a subscriber. Better make up a club.
2. Get your friends to subscribe by personal appeal.
3. Join the "Get One Today" League, and secure one subscriber before you sleep.
4. Have a Mission Day in your Sunday School.
5. Make an every-member canvass, going out two by two.

WAKE THE SLEEPERS.

Of the 1,827 Kentucky Baptist churches, 911 gave nothing to Missions. Help them open their eyes. There are 11,000 Southern Baptist churches asleep.

PARSONAGES.

Less than fifty Kentucky Baptist churches have parsonages, and only one-fifth of the pastors live in the community of their church. Help move them there. Start a parsonage fund.

MAMMON.

You can not serve God and Mammon, but you can make Mammon serve God. Moses, David, Matthew, William Carey and many others have done so. Help lead the way in your neighborhood.

HEAVEN.

You can't take money with you to heaven, but you can send it on ahead of you. Cornelius, the Centurion, did this, it is written, "Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God." Help to lead the way in sending.

THE INTEREST.

Every Baptist Mission Board pays large amounts for interest, because the money from the churches does not come on time. Up to 7 p. m., April 30th, the Home Mission Board had a deficit of $121,000—the money came that night, paying this off and leaving a balance of $14,502. But thousands of dollars are lost, being taken to pay interest. Kentucky Baptists pay interest at Louisville, in Atlanta and Richmond. Help avoid this by giving early and often, that is on the first day of the week.

CHURCH BUILDINGS.

There are three times as many unhoused Baptist churches in Kentucky than all others combined; and there are more white Baptist churches without houses of worship than Negro Baptist churches without church buildings. Help the church building fund at once.

NEGRO BAPTISTS.

When Southern Baptists organized their Convention in 1845 there were only 125,000 negro Baptists, now there are nearly three million. They have outgrown all other religious bodies. Our State Board is wisely working with them. At the June meeting another negro evangelist was employed. Help this great cause and get others to help.

CLOSED CHURCHES.

There are 1,376 Baptist churches in Kentucky, with only once a month preaching. Thus closed three-fourths of the time. The State Board is planning to aid pastors to preach oftener in these churches. Help them all you can and as soon as you can.

STATE WIDE REVIVAL.

The State Board appointed a strong committee to plan for a State-wide revival.

Pray for them daily. Help with your kindest cooperation. Talk with your pastor and Sunday School superintendent.

THE TEST.

Giving is a test of love. God so loved the world that he gave. To obey is better than sacrifice. Jesus said: "If you love me, keep my commandments; if ye love me ye will obey my words;" and as he went home he said: "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." Love is the fulfilling of the law. Go or help some one go.

SENDING A SUBSTITUTE.

When you pray at night would it not be pleasant to know that your very own substitute began morning work for Christ on the other side of the world? Twenty-four hours of work for Jesus, one working while the other slept, and each praying for the other.

To have a link like this would make Foreign Missions alive.

One man, or woman, or family, can have the luxury of a live missionary, representative.

Two, five or ten people can combine their gifts if not able to do it singly.

A Sunday School may have its missionary. Many a school which now has difficulty in collecting one hundred dollars for a vague far away cause could raise five hundred dollars to support its own substitute on the field.

Any Association may support a missionary where no one church is strong enough. Attempt great things for God. Pray great prayers. Do the impossible. This is the spirit of Christianity.

"According to thy faith be it true unto thee." We do not know what we can do until we try.

Now is the time.

W. D. POWELL Editor

FAIRNESS TO OUR STATE WORKERS.

We have borrowed the money to pay our State workers at the end of each month while we pressed the claims of Home and Foreign Missions. Having accomplished our purpose in that direction we now turn our attention to the development and maintenance of our base of supplies. We must honorably and faithfully meet our financial obligations to our colporters, missionaries and evangelists,

The State Board of Missions appointed a Judicious Committee to present to our people, first: the best methods of securing Mission funds that will cause a continuous stream to flow into our treasuries and avoid the frantic appeals which are usually made at the close of each fiscal year; second: to strive to secure a state-wide revival; third: to use all laudible means to secure an increase in the salaries of country and village pastors. These are all important subjects, which are vitally connected with the growth and prosperity of our Baptist Zion in Kentucky.

Active preparations are being made for a great assembly at Dawson Springs the last week in July. Make your preparations to be there. The railroads give reduced rates; entertainment can be secured at the hotels at reasonable prices. Dawson Springs is famous for the healthgiving powers of its waters. Many of the finest speakers in the State will be heard. Plan to spend the entire week.

The Kentucky Mission Monthly is the property of the Baptists of Kentucky, and should have their cordial support. We urge pastors and Mission workers to cooperate with us in increasing our lists. Only 25 cents per annum. The three journals, 60 cents a year, but remember to always send these to W. D. Powell, 205 East Chestnut Street, Louisville, Ky.

"THE PRIMACY OF STATE MISSIONS."

This is the title of a book by the State Secretaries of the State that will soon be published. Mission study classes should plan to take it in their course. It deserves wide circulation.

The Southern Baptist Convention had a great meeting in Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma City is a marvel of growth. It is twenty-three years old, and has 125 miles of asphalt pavement. They have magnificent churches and splendid public school buildings.

There were 1,228 messengers. Texas led and Kentucky stood second.

It was resolved to raise large sums for Home and Foreign Missions. The next Convention will be held in St. Louis.

A DESTITUTE POINT.

The editor preached on a recent Sunday night at Bonanza, a considerable town in Floyd county. They have a church house, but I was told that was the first religious service that had been held in the town in a year. We had a large and attentive audience. We organized a Sunday School and I promised that we would try to get one of our evangelists or missionaries to hold a meeting.

That afternoon I passed through Ivyton, a place of importance, where we have a church, but no regular preaching. They maintain a good Sunday School.

Our Sunday Schools and B. Y. P. U.'s in the State must be gathering funds for contribution to aid our growing Sunday School work. We have two men actively engaged, and it is the purpose to send forth two more in the near future, and we are in urgent need of funds to carry forward this work.

The next General Association will be held in Madisonville, Ky., November 15th. The railroads have conceded reduced rates. Plan to be there. Pastor Mahoney and his people are erecting a magnificent building in which our sessions will be held.

BAPTIST STUDENTS IN STATE SCHOOLS.

The State Board has been supporting a worker for a few months who cares for the spiritual interests of Baptist young men and women who are attending State schools. No doubt a suitable man will be procured at an early date to give his entire time to this important denominational interest. The State Board is ready for every forward move that will strengthen our Baptist bulwarks.

We know of no other Southern State that has a man doing this important work to conserve and vitalize our resources. Much is being done by Northern Baptists and by other denominations.

At the last meeting of the State Board a resolution was unanimously passed, announcing to the denomination that they are in no wise connected with an enterprise fostered by Rev. H. R. McLendon, to establish a school at Egypt, Ky., and that aid extended there is in no wise helpful to our State work. It is truly an individual enterprise, and people giving to it must do so on their own judgment. It is neither wise nor lawful for Brother McLendon to use letters from various individuals in the State, unless these letters specifically state that they commend and approve the effort which he is making. The general cause of Missions is both weakened and hindered by gifts made by individuals and churches otherwise than through our organized work.

We now have the minutes of the Southern Baptist Convention. Send us ten cents postage, and we will gladly mail anyone a copy; or, better still, let us send you a number by express, at your expense, to circulate among your people. It is a splendid document, and needs extensive circulation.

Our slogan for the next few months must be: "No debt on State Missions when the books close October 31st."

State Missions are now at the front to stay. One hundred fields ask help of us. What shall we say to them?

Missionary Robt. F. Doll has been aided in a gracious meeting at Pollard church by Missionary F. Hardin. There were some eighty accessions. Fifty-three were baptized last Sunday night, and others will follow. Brother Doll has demonstrated at Pollard what a faithful, consecrated worker can do. He found the church paying $200.00 for half time, in a dilapidated house and in two years time they have gone to full time, have contributed liberally to all Missions and benevolence, have torn down the old building and erected a splendid church house with Sunday School rooms, costing some $5,000.00; have had one hundred and thirty accessions to the church, and they are now about ready to become self-supporting. This is a noble record and a concrete example of what State Missions are doing for the enlargement and enrichment of Christ's Kingdom in our State.

CHURCH BUILDING.

Our work of aiding in the erection of suitable and adequate meeting houses at needy points grows in volume and interest. A State-wide move is on that should receive the loyal support and encouragement of every true Baptist. We are having signal success in removing indebtedness from churches that have been built. Crushing debts hinder the spiritual life and activity of any congregation. Any stimulating influence that will induce them to arise and cancel the indebtedness means much in kingdom building and enthusiastic energy directed towards world-wide evangelization.

There are few ways in which one can do more good with the same amount of money as devoting it to aiding in church building through the agency of the State Board. We need money in sums of twenty-five, fifty, seventy-five, hundred, and thousand dollar sums. Men and women of Israel, help us at once! We have promised to make the last payment on a number of houses which are now completed and the money must be forthcoming. I wish I could make this appeal more urgent. Send in the funds.

The Sunday School Secretary had the pleasure and profit of a two-days' meeting with all the Sunday School Secretaries and B. Y. P. U. Secretaries of the Southern Baptist Convention at Oklahoma City just prior to the Meeting of the Convention. It was a very profitable meeting, many important problems were discussed. We are becoming more and more convinced that Southern Baptists are leading all other denominations in the matter of progressive Sunday School work.

* * *

Another meeting of the Sunday School workers at the Convention in Oklahoma that was a great blessing to all of us was the King's Teachers Banquet. Over two hundred King's Teachers were present and a number of fine speeches were made.
Dr. J. W. Porter, of Lexington, Ky., editor of the Western Recorder; Dr. E. C. Dargan, of Macon, Ga., President of the Convention;
Dr. Lee Scarbrough, of the Southwestern
Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas;
Dr. J. W. McGlothlin, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, and Dr. P. E. Burroughs, Teacher Training Secretary of the Sunday School Board, were the speakers. A permanent Alumni Association of King's Teachers of the Southern Baptist Convention was organized. We will have a greater meeting with a much larger attendance when the Convention meets in St. Louis next May. We expect Kentucky to be represented there in a large way.

Dr. Porter, Dr. Burroughs and Dr. Dargan, three of the speakers, were graduates in the Teacher Training Course, therefore

King's Teachers. Dr. McGlothlin in his speech said he did not hold a diploma, but he would never be caught out any more in that kind of fix. Things are constantly coming up to embarrass a great many of our brethren who are not heartily enlisted in the Sunday School work, and we put them on notice now that they had better get ready. We are very desirous that every pastor, every Sunday School Superintendent, every Sunday School officer and teacher in Kentucky shall become King's Teachers. It is a fact worthy of note that most of our great men in the Southern Baptist Convention have been leading their forces in the Teacher Training work and hold the diploma themselves.

* * *

In the recent recognition services at Lawrenceburg, diplomas and seals were awarded a large class. Two of the Blue Seal graduates for this month are in the Lawrenceburg church. Superintendent H. V. Bell, who has been Superintendent of the school for more than twenty years and principal of the City Schools for twenty-three years, only lacked one book of being a Blue Seal graduate.

It is very gratifying that so many of our College and school officers and teachers testify to the great blessing of this course. They are educated and are educators, and still they appreciate to the fullest extent this special preparation that every Sunday School worker needs, whether well educated or not.

* * *

We want to begin now to get ready for the South-wide Teacher Training Campaign that will be on in September. I am very anxious that we make a special effort in Kentucky to enlist 5,000 of our workers in the Teacher Training work during the month. Of course, everybody who holds the Normal diploma and have not yet completed the full course, will want to take other books in the course and great hosts of our workers who have not done the work, will want to take the Manual. We call on Kentuckians, now, to get ready that we may set the pace for the States of the South in this campaign.

We hope that all enrollments in the future may be made through this office so that we may know and all of us may know just the status of the Teacher Training work in our State.

THE GEORGETOWN ASSEMBLY.

We have received several letters of inquiry about the Georgetown Assembly. Secretary T. J. Watts has provided a magnificent program, and our workers who fail to attend this meeting are robbing themselves of a rich feast. It will mean larger preparation of both heart and mind to attend this meeting, Monday, July 1st, to Friday, July 5th. We will be glad to supply any who wish, with programs from this office, or they may be ordered from Rev. T. J. Watts, Bowling Green, Ky. All expenses while at the Assembly, including board and lodging and matriculation for the entire week will be $5.00. About 500 matriculated last year. There ought easily to be one thousand this year. Suppose we make that our aim—1,000 at the Georgetown Assembly.

DAWSON SPRINGS ASSEMBLY.

We are arranging a fine program for the Dawson Springs Assembly which will be ready about the middle of June. The dates are July 22nd to 26th. We are planning to have a great meeting and are expecting a larger attendance than ever.

* * *

The Daily Messenger, of Mayfield, Ky., gives nearly a whole column on its front page to a write-up of the Baptist Sunday School in that place. Supt. W. H. Albright is certainly doing things in a large way. The average attendance of this school for the month of May was over 500. This is the largest attendance in the State during the month. And still it grows.

THE DEDICATION AT LICKING RIVER CHURCH.

I went from Paintsville to Falcon in the maul hack over a road that was so rough that I walked much of the distance.

Pastor L. F. Caudill, the veteran worker in Magoffin county, gave me a gracious welcome to his hospitable home. Bro. Caudill has planted most of the churches in this county and has defended in an able manner the truth as taught by Missionary Baptists. He has at times served the State Board as Missionary. He is widely known and greatly beloved. He furnished me with the best horse in Magoffin county to ride. I preached that night at Marsh Creek. The next day we crossed the mountains to Licking River. I preached and we had two professions of faith. They were baptized next day.

On Sunday I spoke on Sunday School work and then preached the sermon and the house was formally dedicated to God.

One brother publicly confessed Christ and stated that he would ask baptism at the next meeting. He lived ten miles away and wanted his family to be present.

Bro. Caudill is greatly encouraged in his work.

We are gratified to know that our colportage work in Kentucky leads that of any State in the South.

W. M. U. ANNUAL MEETING.

Our gathering at Oklahoma City was of unusual interest. Many were absent from the Atlantic States, whom we greatly missed, but it was a welcome opportunity to meet our sisters of the Western part of our country. Texas, Oklahoma and Missouri were well represented, and a fine looking body of women we found them, with warm hearts, and vigorous in mind and body. It was a joy to see our President, Miss Heck, in such fine health, and we are fortunate indeed that she accepted re-election. Though minus a Corresponding Secretary, the Executive Committee in Baltimore was well represented by Mrs. J. B. Mathews, Vice President for Maryland, while Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Lowndes and Mrs. Wallis handled the business of the meeting with their well-known efficiency. The vacant office was filled by the election of Miss Kathleen Malory as Corresponding Secretary to take effect September 1st. She has been Corresponding Secretary of Alabama, and proved herself equal to the post she is now to fill. A member of one of the widely known and honored Baptist families of Alabama, a graduate of the Baltimore College for Women, she is most conspicuous for sincere, unaffected piety, while in winning ways and charming manner she is supreme.

The recommendations of the Boards of the Convention and of the Executive Committee W. M. U. have been embodied in the policy printed below, which was adopted by the Central Committee of Kentucky. Notice some changes in the Standard of Excellence, chiefly in making it more easily attainable. One item was added, Personal Service. This means for each society to adopt some form of religious work to carry on in its own community, something that each one can do personally, to make our own town or neighborhood better and happier. More will be published about this ere long. Much interest was aroused in the twenty-fifth anniversary of our organization as a union of States, which will be celebrated next May in St. Louis, where the Convention and W. M. U. are to meet. While single societies began to be numerous fifty years ago, and Central Committees in some of the States have been working for thirty-five and more years, as formal Union was begun in Richmond, Va., in 1888. Let us get ready for the celebration by large gifts, of our time, our influence, our money and our prayers.

Georgetown, July 1-6 is the place and date of the Assembly, where representatives of our societies are invited to come, and talk over the work, and all interested in missions are asked to meet with us there. Mrs. T. A. Hamilton, of Alabama, will speak on Wednesday, July 3, at 2:30 p. m. Friday, at 9:30 a. m., the Vice Presidents of Associations will confer as to the best ways of conducting their work, while on the other day there will be conferences for Y. W. A.'s, Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors, led by Mrs. Creal, Miss Warren and Mrs. Schloss.

Write to Rev. Thos. J. Watts, Bowling Green, for circulars, giving full details.

Be sure and send 20 cents subscription for "Our Mission Fields," when you send in your first quarter's report to our Secretary. Better still, send 40 cents, so your society can have two copies. The paying basis begins October 1st, but it is important for subscriptions to be in hand before September 1st, and it will be easiest to include the money in your quarterly payment.

E. S. B.

POLICY FOR CENTRAL COMMITTEE 1912-1913.

Preamble.

The loyal unity of the Union to its united work and the love and harmony existing in those carrying it on are unfailing sources of thankfulness and give the assurance that any plan undertaken will call out the quick and untiring response. Therefore it is with much confidence that we lay before you certain points, the stressing of which will form our Central Committee Policy for the coming year.

The Immediate Task.

Since the principal point of emphasis in the twenty-fourth annual session was a recognition of the unwise policy we had been pursuing in building without an adequate foundation of children and young people trained and fitted for the places they should occupy in the evangelization of the world, and since it was resolved to organize 1,000 men Sunbeam Societies this year, your committee is affectionately urged to begin at once a campaign to this end with the four thousand Women's Missionary Societies who have no Sunbeam Bands or Royal Ambassadors under their care.

The Auxiliaries.

The Young Woman's Auxiliaries have made much progress in the years since their organization became an inherent part of the Union's plans. The Junior Auxiliaries, the connecting link between the Sunbeams and Young Woman's Auxiliaries, are still very few and have received little attention. The number of both could easily be doubled if this part of our immediate task was duly impressed upon the mother societies. The Auxiliaries require also broader and more comprehensive plans and before each should be laid the new Auxiliary Manual with the request to adopt the Constitution and plans there mapped out. A copy will be furnished for each Auxiliary now organized and every new one as organized.

Uniform Standards.

Especial attention is called to the Standards for Women's Missionary Societies and Young Woman's Auxiliaries and the new Standard for Sunbeams, and all committees are urged to adopt the Union's Standard, as uniformity is absolutely necessary to exact reports.

Campaign for Subscriptions to Our Mission Fields.

After a year of failure in the plan of giving to some societies while urging others to subscribe the Union has put "Our Mission Fields" on a strictly subscription basis.

Great effort should be made to see that all Societies subscribe for at least one copy before September 1st.

Calendar.

The Calendar, which grows in favor, should be more widely brought to the attention of all Missionary Societies. We, therefore, again urge (1) from your committee you appoint a strong sub-committee, charged with the consideration and made responsible for the whole matter of advertising and purchase of Calendars in your State; (2) that you appeal for assistance to the editor of the Woman's Column, asking, as an important means of all true mission advancement, that she keep standing during the entire months of November and December, an advertisement of the Calendar; (3) that samples be sent to all State gatherings occurring in the fall; (4) that some enthusiastic woman in each Association be enlisted in getting purchasers.

Tithing.

Tithing hitherto recommended by the Union has in the last few years received great attention from the church at large. It should be more strongly stressed by all Central Committees making it a matter for emphasis and action in all of our State gatherings and in Society programmes.

Personal Service.

It is with much pleasure that we record marked growth in the number of Societies engaged in service for the spiritual and physical uplift of their own community. A large service has been rendered by the preparation of the New Manual, "The Home-maker." Personal Service has been added to the Standard of Excellence. With the helps attainable and the clearer understanding of the work there should be fully double the number of Societies bearing their share of this service before another annual session.

Training School.

The Training School is worthy of our pride. We need only (1) Send to it our best young women. (2) Widely advertise it (3) Fulfill our pledges for its support. (4) See that each State year by year comes up to its apportioned part of the five year Enlargement Plan.

Special Seasons.

The Home and Foreign Missions Offerings are too well established to need more than re-emphasis except at the points of greater liberality, more thorough preparation and wider distribution of Christmas envelopes and setting aside of Christmas gift.

Preparations for the 25th Anniversary.

A year is not too long for adequate plans for the celebration of our twenty-fifth anniversary and we ask your hearty co-operation with the twenty-fifth anniversary committee appointed at the recent session, your aid in keeping the coming anniversary before your societies and your constant endeavor to complete this year by a larger gift than any hitherto made.

The Baptists in China need funds to print a correct translation of the Scriptures. They have a word which means "immense," but the American Bible Society, dominated by Pedobaptist influences translates the word "the washing ceremony." An effort is being made to secure $100,000 for the China Baptist Publication Society.

Evangelist Martin had several thrilling experiences crossing swollen streams, going through the mud, on his first horseback trip of 30 miles across the mountains, to reach an appointment at Hazard, where he is now engaged in a very fine meeting with Bro. Petrey. He goes next to hold a meeting at Hyden, a very important point, and from there will go early in May to Morehead. Our Brother is being wonderfully blessed of the Lord in his work.

"CHURCH DISCIPLINE"

BY

J. D. MADDOX, M. D.

Secretary Baptist Ministers' Aid Society of Kentucky.

WHAT SOME THINK ABOUT IT:

"I have read your valuable production, "Church Discipline," with interest and profit. It is a booklet which every pastor should have, and not only possess, but use. I wish for it the widest possible circulation."—WM. D. NOWLIN.

"This day I have re-read your tract on 'Church Discipline,' and am greatly pleased and edified. It is timely, clear and strong. In this day of laxness, both churches and preachers need it."—A. S. PETTIE, D.D.

"I read the book very carefully. I find it is made of strong, intelligent, well-arranged Scriptural grounds, and it fills a gap in our Church Polity much needed in this loose age and mad rush for numbers, rather than quality among Baptists. Hope you will enlarge and reprint it. I feel that then it would become a standard work on the subject."—J. W. WALDROP.

"A tract of 47 pages, by Dr. J. D. Maddox, of Owensboro, Ky., came to me this morning. As I was planning a big and busy day's work, I read the preface and first paragraph, intending to take a taste, and read it at a more convenient day. But I did not stop till I had read to the last word. My judgment is, while the spell is on me, for I have just finished the reading, that it is the best document on the subject that I know anything about. I wish every pastor would take the best Sunday hour and read it, with a little comment, to the church, and to the world assembled with it. In the present and general condition of things, it would do more good than any sermon he could preach, and the church and cause is entitled to the best service he can give. Get 'Discipline' before your churches ere they die."—J. B. MOODY.

"'Church Discipline,' by Dr. J. D. Maddox, is a most timely and able treatise on this greatly neglected topic. It is clear, concise and Scriptural. In this age of visions, movements, conventions, clubs, and union fads, it is frequently worth a pastor's reputation and position to 'contend earnestly for the faith,' to teach doctrine, preach the Word and warn men against the delusive doctrines of false teachers. The book defines 'Discipline,' treats of the Trespasser, the Disorderly, the Heretic (and, oh, how many there are who 'pervert the right ways of the Lord'), the Pastor's Duty, Gross Immoralities, Special Instructions, Opinions of Able Expounders of the Word, Illustrations. The whole treatise shows the wisdom and safety of both the church and individual, who heeds the Saviour's warning, 'Abide in my Word.' If every Baptist in the land would read and heed its teachings, incalculable benefits would accrue to our churches."—J. G. BOW.

A member of one of the leading District Mission Boards in the South says: "Our colporteur has sold 24 copies of your book on "Discipline." He is anxious to push its sale. What can you furnish them to us for? Give your best rate including freight."
