TITHING.

The Banker.

"The silver and gold are mine," saith the Lord of hosts; hence He is the Banker of bankers.

The Loans.

Suppose my banker lends me $5,000 on condition that I pay him every year ten per cent. of all the profits I make by the use of it. Not ten per cent. of the capital, which would be $500, but ten per cent. of the profits, whether they be little or much. If I make $500, I would owe my banker $50. If I make $1,000, I would owe him $100. If he should lend me $10,000 and I make $2,000 by the use of it, I would owe him $200. The same proportion, of course, would hold for larger or smaller profits on the borrowed capital.

The Dependent.

Suppose my banker had a large number of people at work for him—people I know, or know of, and I also know how faithfully they serve him. Suppose these people are dependent for their support, their daily bread, upon the wages they receive from the banker or through his agents. Suppose that besides these workers for the banker there are many sick people, poor people, and people in distress, in all of whose welfare and happiness he is deeply interested.

The Payments.

Suppose my banker tells me that while he continues to lend me the principal, I need not pay the ten per cent. of the profits I make on the loan directly to him at the bank, but give it to the people I know, or know of, who are at work for him, not forgetting to give a liberal proportion to poor, sick, or distressed people who need help. Suppose he tells me to use my own best judgment in giving the money I owe to him where I think it will do the most good.

The Enlargements.

Suppose my banker learns that I am wisely using the ten per cent., his share of the profits I make on the capital he furnishes me; that I am using my good judgment in distributing it among his workers who have no other means of support, and that I am helping to make comfortable and happy those poor and less fortunate people in whom he is interested; is it not reasonable to suppose that he would be willing to lend me more capital on the same terms?

The Accounts.

Suppose, further, that he requires that I keep an account of what I give to these different people and causes in which he is interested, so as to be sure that I am paying the ten per cent. I owe to him from year to year.

This is Tithing.

Try It.

1. God our Father is interested in our spiritual welfare.

2. Our money, or the need of it, directly affects our spiritual welfare. Therefore,

3. He will give us what money we need, IF we obey Him and follow His plan.

Again: 1. God, who only giveth power to get wealth, is a rewarder—one who keeps his promises.

2. He hath promised poured "blessings" to those who pay the tithe. Therefore,

3. If more money would be a blessing to you, and do you real good, He will give it you.

The connection is clear, the chain of reasoning is perfect. Besides this, do you not see that when we pay the tithe we make Him a partner in our business?

OUR STATE MISSION PROGRAM.

Kentucky Baptists by their deeds have convinced us that they are deeply interested in evangelizing the lost and also in strengthening the weak places in our Zion. They believe in supporting missionaries who have a message and who know what they believe and who preach what they are sure of. We live at a time when ministers must emphasize the atonement and divinity of Christ and have positive convictions on the great doctrines of our faith.

There are so many open doors before us that we must enlarge our sphere of usefulness and the number of workers. These are days of financial depression when we must practice small economies in our home life. We can clean and press last winter's suit and overcoat and use them through the present winter months, but such stinting must not be carried to the house of God. The present conditions call for humility and a closer walk with God. Without sacrifice and self-denial, our religious life will be wanting in joy and vitality. The Gospel must be preached with a deep realization of its power and value.

This is the time of the year when we invoice our stock and study well the difference between our assets and liabilities. Kentucky Baptists must give sustained support to the enterprises we have in hand. We must go on converting the lost, organizing churches and Sunday Schools, building meeting houses and turning our visions into victories.

Our's is a living Christ who can turn the strife and bloodshed now prevailing in Europe to His honor and glory. He only gives us light sufficient to take one step at a time. We walk now in the dim, uncertain twilight. Before us is a day of such opportunities for service to God as we have never witnessed; undaunted faith and unstinted giving must characterize our people. In this way will we hasten the coming of His Kingdom and be best prepared to render the most effective service to humanity.

Freely Ye Have Received, Freely Give.

The State Board of Missions has had a great year. The increase along all lines has been stimulating and healthful. Kentucky is forging to the front. There are reasons why we should lead the South along all lines of Missions and Benevolence.

A careful survey of the churches would show that the gifts of many of our churches were disappointing. Thousands of dollars are annually lost to State Missions because the members in the churches are not approached. Some pastors at a certain time of the year get a number of people to agree to give a certain sum to current expenses and a certain sum to Missions each Lord's Day. It is always a small portion of the membership who respond. Many of these do not give a tithe of what they are capable of giving and what they should give. If a special campaign is put on, the givers will give more and the non-givers may be reached. The pastor who through indolence or indifference fails to put on an Every-Member Campaign does himself and the work a great injustice.

We use care and prudence in entering new fields, we earnestly strive to find workers who will be suited to the field and who will do with their might what their hands find to do. We study economy. We present in our annual report a full exhibit of our receipts and disbursements. We publish in the Mission Monthly where every dollar comes from and in our quarterly and annually reports we show when and where it was applied to our work. We must pray for divine guidance as we enter a year full of anxieties and perplexities. More than ever we should be careful to send our funds to the State Board of Missions each month that the workers may be paid promptly and that the banks may have no occasion to question our denominational loyalty.

PLANNING OUR WORK FOR THE NEW YEAR.

The present financial stress will cause the State Board of Missions to study well the appropriations for the year upon which we enter.

Very wisely many of the churches we have been helping for some time have come to self-support; others have scaled down the amounts asked and yet others tell us that if we will aid them for two or three months, they will then become independent. This is as it should be. The conditions at some needy points are such that we must continue for the present to extend the same amount of aid. Other churches that could stand alone hang on to the Board like leeches.

It gets to be a fad with some men to get aid from the State Board. They will take a field somewhat weak or decadent and at once seek aid from the Board when a little wise and tactful canvassing would secure sufficient support. Some preachers are afraid to preach against covetousness and to show the membership the Scriptural grounds for financing the kingdom.

It is the desire of the State Board to aid all weak and needy points that ought to have extended to them the hand of the elder brother. We must enter upon those promising needy new fields which demand our immediate attention. We have no funds for ease-loving churches nor for shirkers. Sometimes each church consumes the strength of its financial support on some local object where the work is not really evangelistic and then expect the State Board to support the minister.

We do not command the means to furnish the churches singers and personal workers and other hired specialists. Our desire is to teach the churches to lean heavily on the Divine help and to encourage every member to work hard.

We are only too anxious to aid our brethren to secure a lot properly located and to build a suitable meeting house at every needy point. But we are not disposed to patch and paint every dilapidated church house that needs it.

This is a serious time, and we must take proper account of our assets, our work, our prospects and with heroic faith and a sacrificial spirit we must work out the task which our Master has assigned us in this our beloved Commonwealth.

We should earnestly pray that the Holy Spirit may guide the actions of our State Board in the annual meeting which will occur the first Tuesday in December. We want a statesmanlike program that will be adequate to our needs and in keeping with our ability.

The Missionaries of the State Board have done a great work this year and those who contributed to their support will participate with them in the blessings received.

We had a great meeting of the General Association at Somerset. The entertainment was superb. A fine spirit was manifested and the weather was ideal. We had thought that Dr. J. W. Porter was at his best either as editor, preacher or platform speaker, but all are now agreed that he is one of the finest presiding officers in the South. He presides with great poise and fairness and would make an excellent president for the Southern Baptist Convention.

The State Board had the past year 111 workers who reported 2,881 conversions and 2,320 baptisms. Number added by letter, 1,377. Total additions, 3,697. Thirty churches and fifty-six Sunday Schools were organized. We had appropriated $5,000 more for State Missions this year than last. Our receipts were such that this was all net and a small balance left in the treasury. There was received during October, $4,113 more than was received last year. Our total receipts for the year were $178,605.26. This is $94,000 more than we received seven years ago and $34,000 more than we received last year. We lead all the States in the South in gifts to Foreign Missions and stand second in gifts to Home Missions.

There must be a stream of money flowing into this office from now on sufficient to meet our monthly obligations to our State workers and also for our quota to Home and Foreign Missions. Let churches and pastors rally to our support.

Dr. J. W. Porter, the Moderator, showed great ability as a presiding officer.

State Missions is at the front to stay.

WE NEED MONEY.

Our State workers must bestir themselves as never before. Those who give for the support of the work must be more devout and consecrated than ever.

God's power and presence must be invoked by both classes. The Baptists of Kentucky must take State Missions to heart and send the money to us regularly for the support of the missionaries.

We must have money to pay the workers for November. We raised more money than ever before the past year and we spent more. We begin a new year with practically an empty treasury.

A clear sense of duty, a serene faith in God and heroic giving will keep funds flowing into our treasury.

Organization and a spirit of self-sacrifice brought $1,050,000.00 into the German war chest in a short while. The largest subscription was $500. This was for a flag and an Emperor. What will not God's people do for the cause of Christ?

Our Baptist women have made a notable advance in gifts to State Missions.

Our Sunday Schools likewise have given far more for State Missions this year than last.

W. D. Powell, D.D., Louisville, Ky.

My dear Brother—Hearty congratulations to you. You have beaten us again, but you have nearly twice as many Baptists as we have, and per capita we have done as well as you have. We received $1,300 more this year than we received last year for State Missions. We have advanced on every cause, with the exception of Ministerial Education and Colportage work. I have not yet footed it up, but I think we will have about $2,000 increased debt. Under the circumstances, this is a remarkable showing for us. Yours fraternally,
J. W. Gillon.

P. S.—Have practically no increased debt.—G.

M. B. ADAMS, President,

Georgetown, Kentucky.

Great fear and trepidation has seized men in the financial world because of the war in Europe. This will admonish care and prudence in planning our work for the new year. Lust of power promotes the dreadful waste of lives and property.

Christianity is in no wise responsible for the wanton destruction we have witnessed and the paralysis of the industrial world, for the leaders follow neither the spirit nor teachings of Jesus. This war will teach the world to distinguish between the true and false in religion.

Dr. A. Paul Bagby read a splendid report on the Judson Centennial at Somerset and made an address that was enjoyed by everybody. He had been appointed to do this work and took time to prepare himself thoroughly.

Bro. Giles C. Taylor is leading in a glorious revival at Berea in which some seventy people have joined the church. Bro.

F. Hardin has recently been in some meetings in which a great number were saved and sixty or seventy were added to the churches.

THE OUTLOOK AND THE UPLOOK.

"When the outlook is dark, try the uplook."

These words hold a message of cheer;

Be glad when repeating them over,

And smile when the shadows appear.

Above and beyond stands the Master,

He sees what we do for His sake,

He never will fail nor forsake us

He knoweth the way that we take.

"When the outlook is dark, try the uplook"

The uplook of faith and good cheer,

The love of the Father surrounds us,

He knows when the shadows are near;

Be brave then and keep the eyes lifted

And smile in the dreariest day,

His smile will glow in the darkness,

His light will illumine the way.

TO PASTORS AND SUPERINTENDENTS

In the absence of a General S. S. Secretary a greater responsibility falls upon you to see that our Sunday School work is kept up to the standard, and advancement made. There is no one in the field now and what is done must be done by you. This is a fine time of year for training classes and institutes, and much work along that line can be done. Until another General-Secretary is secured the Board has asked me to look after the correspondence here at the Sunday School office and I shall be glad to furnish any literature or information or service from this end of the line. Let's keep the good work going.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE W. M. U. OF KENTUCKY.

On Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Baracca Room of the First Baptist church the meeting of Superintendts, Officers and Central Committee was held. Miss E. S. Broadus, chairman of the Central Committee, presided. The most important business of the occasion was the consideration of the Constitution which had been drafted by the committee appointed last year. That all might be perfectly familiar with each article discussed, typewritten copies were distributed.

The points most discussed were those of representation and whether the annual meeting should be held in connection with the General Association of Baptists. Many opinions were expressed, but no action could be taken until brought before the body on Wednesday.

By special request, an open discussion was held on how best to organize and carry on the work of a country society. Following this, Mrs. Coleman, of Paducah, told of the woman's work in the First church, Paducah, where they have over three hundred women studying missions. This society is doing splendid work by the circle plan. Mrs. Colman is President of the society and was elected Recording Secretary of the W. M. U. of the State.

Miss Mencie Ware, of Hustonville, told of some of their efforts in reaching the Standard of Excellence, the most difficult part being that of twenty-five per cent increase in membership, and how each woman selected one woman to work and pray for until she was enlisted.

Mrs. Porter, of Lexington, told of the splendid work of their W. M. S. and how they reached the Standard. She also told something of their Personal work. Others who entered into the general discussion were Mrs. Coffey, of Monticello; Mrs. Eager, of Louisville; Miss Garnett, Glasgow; Mrs. Shearer, Monticello; and Mrs. Arthur Dailey, Mt. Eden.

The recommendation was made that each Associational W. M. U. have quarterly meetings.

Mrs. B. G. Rees spoke of the importance of sending in their reports to the W. M. U. office and Associational Superintendent.

Mrs. Janie Cree Bose told how the money should be sent to the W. M. U. of Kentucky, Mrs. B. G. Reese, Treas.

Pennants were again offered to the Associations reaching the Standard of Excellence.

Fourteen Superintendents responded to the roll call.

The Annual Meeting of the W. M. U. of Kentucky was called to order by Mrs. B. G. Rees, Treasurer. This was occasioned by the absence of the President, Vice - President and Recording Secretary. After devotional exercises by Mrs. Frank Wahl, of Paducah, the Welcome Address by Mrs. W. E. Hunter and Response by Miss E. S. Broadus, Mrs. B. G. Rees was elected Chairman for the day.

Committees appointed: Mrs. Bell Curd and Miss Alice Garnett, Enrollment. Mrs. George B. Eager, Mrs. Samuels and Mrs. McCarter, Resolutions. The Nominating Committee was elected by the body and consisted of Mrs. R. Addington, S. E. District; Mrs. E. B. Sayers, N. E. District; Mrs. M. D. Martin, Central District; Mrs. P. F. Smith, Western District; and Mrs. Ira D. Andrews, West Central District.

Mrs. E. T. Forsee, of Eminence, was elected President; Mrs. J. B. Coleman, of Paducah, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Kate C. Hinkle, Cor. Sec.; Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, Office Secretary; Mrs. B. G. Rees, Treasurer. Mr. A. E. Wohlbold, Auditor, First Vice President, Miss Elizabeth Garrott, Western District; Mrs. W. E. Hunter, S. E. District, Mrs. E. Gatlin, N. E. District, Y. W. A. Leader, Mrs. Thos. Rodman, R. A. Leader, Mrs. I. C. James, Harrodsburg;

S. B. Leader, Miss Mary Louise Warren, and the other five members of the Central Committee: Mrs. George B. Eager, Miss Agnes Osborne, Mrs. S. E. Woody and Miss May Gardner and Mrs. W. H. Matlack.

The report of the committee appointed last year to draft a Constitution was read and discussed, article by article. Provision was made for one delegate from each society and one additional delegate for every twenty-five after the first twenty-five members. This should be a great stimulus for the societies to enlist more members.

The question of having the annual meetings separate from the General Association was discussed, but decided that the time was hardly ripe for it in Kentucky.

It was moved and carried that pennants be given all societies reaching the Standard of Excellence.

Miss Alice Garnett, Superintendent of Liberty Association, moved that all apportionments be made out by the Central Committee and sent to the individual societies and a copy of same be sent to each Superintendent also.

Kerfoots Parliamentary Law was adopted as the rules of orders. Dr. V. I. Masters, of the Home Board, Atlanta, Ga., made an address on Home Missions.

Mrs. Chappell, of Corbin, led the devotional exercises of the afternoon. Reports of the District Vice Presidents read and adopted. Address by Dr. C. D. Graves, of Nashville, Tenn., on Foreign Missions.

Mrs. Hailey, of Salyersville, spoke of the work of the church and school in Salyersville, after which Mrs. Hinkle read a letter from Dr. B. D. Gray, saying the Home Board discouraged all extra appeals from the mountain schools preferring that money be sent through the regular channels. She asked that societies reach their apportionment first, since the Home Mission money given by the women is for Mountain schools. Should any society desire to give in such a way as not to interfere with reaching the apportionment, there could be no objection to that.

The Sunbeam Band of Somerset, led by Miss Amelia Saunders and Mrs. L. L. Roberts, gave a demonstration. The Cynthiana

Y. W. A., led by Miss Stella Cook, demonstrated Y. W. A. work.

One of the most attractive features of the occasion was the Training School Episode given by the Y. W. A. of Somerset, after which Mrs. G. B. Eager talked on the Training School and its connection with the W. M. U.

Banners were awarded to Bethel and Elkhorn Associations for reaching the Standard of Excellence.

Bethel Association also received the banner for the largest number of new organizations during the year.

Closing prayer by Mrs. E. T. Forsee, of Eminence.

ANNUAL REPORT

From Nov. 1, 1913, to Nov. 1, 1914.

Watchword: "Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might."—Ephesians 6:10.

"The Lord hath done great things for us whereof we are glad" and with Him "our mouth is filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing."

Among the masterpieces wrought by artists of old are wonderful Mosaics representing the Christ. Standing at the correct distance one sees in all its sublimity, the reproduction of the artist's conception of the Christ; but on close observation one discovers that it is made of particles of colored glass, fitted together so skillfully as to appear to be one great whole. Only an artist of genius, skill and a wonderful vision could create such a masterpiece, and even with these qualities he must have the materials with which to do the work.

Our Father, the Master Artist, has the genius, the power and the vision of the work He would accomplish through us, but we must furnish the materials. Our every deed of loving service is fitted into His perfect plan, even as the tiny particles of colored glass in the Mosaic. He is using our acts of mercy, deeds of kindness, prayers and gifts, which oftentimes represent great sacrifice, in His kingdom building.

More perhaps than ever before have Kentucky Baptist women striven this year to furnish the Master the materials.

A SURVEY.

For the first time in our history we closed the Convention Year with gifts to the Boards exceeding our apportionments. And while we have not quite reached the high aim set for us by the State Board for State Missions, we have made a 32 per cent. increase over last year's gifts, which we feel sure all will admit is a very healthy increase. Our gifts for State Missions in the past two years have doubled and while the ideal of the W. M. U. of the South is to increase 10 per cent. each year for all Missions, we have been increasing our gifts to State Missions more largely in view of the great needs and because we had not heretofore been giving proportionately to all the Boards.

We have, day by day, been climbing higher and higher, as it were, the spiral mountain road and today we stand on the heights, looking back on our work of the year. Is it what we would have it be—is it our very best? As we look back on what has been accomplished, we cannot help seeing so much yet to be done, "fields white to harvest" and the reapers too few.

OUR NUMBERS.

The number of societies has increased until we have now enrolled 97 W. M. S., 109 Y. W. A., 25 R. A., 152, Sunbeam, making a total for the State of 783 societies. Of this number 221 have been added this year. This is the largest number organized in any one year of our history, the next largest being that of last year with 126 added to the record. Much of the credit for this is due to the faithful services of Misses Leachman, Northington and Mitchell, who labored with us during the summer months in Church to Church Campaigns, organizing 79 new societies.

We feel very grateful to our State Board for so generously furnishing us with these workers, paying their salaries and all expenses. We are daily seeing the fruits of their labors. CAMPAIGNS.

In February and March a campaign was conducted by the Secretaries of the State, Home and Foreign Boards and W. M. U. in which Conferences were held in forty-seven Associations, for the purpose of enlistment, organization, presentation of new plans and methods and stimulating to increased giving. The Corresponding Secretary had the privilege of making forty-two of the forty-seven Associations. The State Board gave us the services of Miss Leachman for more than half of the Conferences and the Foreign Mission Board furnished Miss Sallie Priest of China, for the others. These Campaigns were followed by Church to Church Campaigns in nine Associations. They have brought telling results. After thrilling talks by a returned missionary and local pastors, through which our women were inspired to do great things for the Lord, our W. M. U. workers found the ripest time to organize new societies, all opposition having been overcome, where any had previously existed, by the very apparent fact that the W. M. U. went hand in hand with the work of the Boards, and by the gracious announcements and kind words of recommendation of those conducting the Campaigns.

OTHER FIELDWORK.

The Corresponding Secretary took part in Institutes and Semi-Annual Meetings in Union, Sulphur Fork, Ohio Valley, Nelson, Breckinridge and Franklin Associations, made as many of the regular Associational meetings as practical, and made a number of single trips to organize individual societies, traveling 10,768 miles. As she traveled over the State during the year she tried faithfully to give the message laid on her heart by the Lord, knowing that it was to Him that she was responsible, and that message was a call to un-withholding consecration on the part of our women. It is a great privilege to meet so many of our splendid women face to face, and we found many of them eager for better service. By viewing the battle from the firing line we see something of the struggle back of the victory.

ASSOCIATIONAL UNIONS.

Superintendents report helpful Associational meetings. These gatherings have been sources of great strength to the workers. The conferences on the problems were means of solutions which enabled many to overcome their own discouragements. Comparisons of reports and methods and explanations of new plans of work for the year have been incentives to greater effort. Whenever possible one of the field-workers or the Secretary was present at these meetings. Much credit is due the splendid Superintendents for faithfully and perseveringly overcoming the obstacles, planning the work for the Associational Meetings and the organization of new societies; for each with her hand on the pulse of the societies, as it were, has been administering as best she might to their needs.

Many Associations have adopted constitutions with regularly elected officers and appointed leaders for the Y. W. A., R. A., and Sunbeam work in the Association and have established the custom of two meetings a year, all of which show marked advance toward greater efficiency.

Today we have organized W. M. U. work in sixty of our seventy-six Associations.

The banner offered last year to the Association having the largest number of societies organized during the year was won by Bethel with a splendid list of twenty-seven.

Many Associational Unions have been striving to fulfill all points on the Standard of Excellence for Associations adopted last year. Bethel and Elkhorn have attained to the Honor List, winning the pennants or banners offered at our last Annual Meeting.

GROWING EFFICIENCY IN THE LOCAL SOCIETY.

Our Baptist women are awaking to their responsibility and power, consequently they are seeking better methods in the local society. The problems of Enlistment, Mission Study, Personal Service, the Home Department and Young People's work are being studied and solved. Many societies have been striving to reach the Standard of Excellence for the local society. Eight societies reported having fulfilled all points: Harrodsburg, Hustonville, Caney Run (Elkhorn), Clifton (Louisville), Seminary, First Church Lexington W. M. S. Broadway, (Louisville), Y. W. A. and Waddy G. A. To these pennants in Kentucky W. M. U. colors were presented. We earnestly desire a greatly increased number during the coming year.

MISSION STUDY.

"Vision First, Then Victory."

Some one said, "If you would save our women from shallowness, from narrowness, from idleness; if you would secure for them breadth and depth of character, if you would have them cultivate the heart as well as the mind, then set their hearts on fire with love for the Master and give them an ambition to do their part in building up His Kingdom."

Many classes of Mission Study have been conducted by our women during the year, the most widely used book being that of "In Royal Service" by Miss Fannie E. S. Heck, President of the W. M. U. Auxiliary to the S. B. C. "Ann of Ava" has also been a favorite book, and has been used much by the Y. W. A's, while many societies have used the books of study of the different Mission fields or countries.

Through these and the programs in our magazine and the mission journals arranged for the monthly meetings, our women are "lifting up their eyes and looking on the fields white to harvest."

PERSONAL SERVICE.

The number of societies having definite forms of organized Personal Service Work has increased. Many others are earnestly seeking to do something definite along this line. Through the questionnaires returned to the office in May, we found that many were conducting Mothers' Meeting, Cottage Prayer Meetings, visiting the hospitals and jails, distributing garments to the poor, assisting in Mission Sunday Schools, arranging for the circulation of good literature, and other movements for community betterment. Through the organized Personal Service Work we hope to train our women to become real assistants to the pastors, doing such work as is usually done by a church missionary.

BOXES.

Both the Home and State Boards are asking that we give the money for the support of the missionaries in preference to buying the new materials for the boxes. Since few of our societies are willing—and we are glad it is so—to send boxes unless much of the clothing is new and of the correct measurements, and the Boards are needing the money for the salaries of the missionaries, this line of work has not been stressed. During the last year, however, ten boxes have been sent to Kentucky mountain missionaries valued at $946.33, six to frontier missionaries valued at $548.39, one to Old Ministers' Aid, value $62.50, two to the Baptist Orphan's Home, value $23.75, four to Mountain schools, value $50.55, four to W. M. U. Training School, value $117.70, five to Miss Leachman for W. M. U. Settlement and City Mission work, valued at $201.34.

JUBILATES.

Perhaps the largest Jubilate held in Kentucky was the one in connection with our State Meeting last year. Following this a Western Kentucky Jubilate was held at Paducah (First Church). Miss Mallory, Corresponding Secretary of W. M. U. Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, Miss Marie Buhlmaier, Missionary at the Immigrant Pier, Baltimore, Miss Sallie Priest, Principal of Eliza Yates School, Shanghai, China, Miss Mattie Morris, Field Worker under the Foreign Mission Board representing the Judson Centennial Movement, and your Corresponding Secretary had a part in this celebration. One was held by the Louisville City Union, one by the Y. W. A. Union of Louisville, one in Henderson for Ohio Valley Association, one in Bardstown for Nelson Association and literature was ordered for many others that have never been reported.

A call at W. M. U. State Headquarters by our beloved Dr. B. D. Gray, Corresponding Secretary of the Home Mission Board, brought afresh to our minds a fact over which we have been somewhat grieved. While the special offerings made in connection with the Jubilates were to be given to both Judson Centennial and Home Church Building Funds, the giving has not been proportionate and the Home Church Building Fund has been the neglected one. Remember this fund is a permanent one and may go on helping destitute churches after we have passed away.

The Union of the South asks that we continue these celebrations this year also, and we ask that those who observe them give proportionately.

SUMMER ASSEMBLIES.

W. M. U. Conferences were conducted at the Assemblies held at Dawson Springs and Georgetown. At Georgetown we had the great privilege of hearing Miss Kathleen Mallory each day. A demonstration of the Y. W. A. work was given by the Y. W. A. of Lexington, First Church, a demonstration of R. A. work was given by the Harrodsburg R. A.'s, and a demonstration of Sunbeam work was given by the Sunbeams of Mt. Vernon Church, Elkhorn Association.

At the Dawson Assembly, Mrs. Thos. Rodman, State Y. W. A. Leader, conducted the Y. W. A. Conference; Miss Emma Leachman led the conferences on Personal Service, and the Secretary conducted Conferences on Efficiency.

We hope to greatly improve our work from year to year, making of these Assemblies real training schools of W. M. U. work. Next summer we expect to have regular training classes for leaders of Sunbeam, R. A. and Y. W. work and conferences on efficiency as well as demonstrations along these lines.

TRAINING SCHOOL ENLARGEMENT.

A great task for the year is that of attempting to raise Kentucky's part of a fund for the new wing to be added to our W. M. U. Training School.

Our Training School is the greatest undertaking and at the same time the greatest success Southern Baptist women have launched single-handed. While we have from one to three years in which to raise our part, which is $7,500, we desire to show our appreciation of the blessings it brings to Kentucky, by doing our best this year.

THE OUTLOOK.

As we assemble in annual session and rejoice over the work of the year accomplished, we feel that we have had a taste as it were of the joys of the disciples on the mount of transfiguration. But let there not be too much self-congratulation, for while the work has advanced, the results are not in proportion to the mercy and love of our Heavenly Father toward us. May we gain the inspiration from these heights to go down even in the valley, if needs be, in the name of the Master.

There are other heights to be attained, other victories to be won. Are we ready for the task? Are we ready to begin this new year's work for the Master in unwitholding consecration?

Referring to missions, Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery says, "We face one of the biggest crisis in the world and it is not to be met by afternoon teas and pretty papers in our societies but by the sacrifice of life and comfort. We are trying to finance the biggest business in the world with our left over change." Are we willing to give ourselves first, then give not only the tithe but the offering as the Lord has prospered?

A WORD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our workers for the kind response to the many appeals, for the gracious hospitality shown the Field Workers and Corresponding Secretary on so many occasions, for so carefully answering the correspondence which has enabled us to more intelligently conduct the work, for the many kind expressions, and for the encouragement given during the past year. And because of the needs and importance of the work, we wish to ask the careful consideration of all literature which we send out, and that you continue to respond promptly to all correspondence.

"Bless Thou the gift our hands have brought;

Bless Thou the work our hearts have planned;

Ours is the hope, the will, the thought;

The rest, O Lord, is in Thy hand."

Our income is entirely insufficient to meet the demands upon us.

Many weak churches need our help. "It has pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save men."

We must save the lost and help the saved.

WHAT THEY SAY

Dr. Lansing Burrows, Pres. Southern Baptist Convention, said: "In my opinion, 'Immanuel's Praise' is easily first among the Gospel Song Books of today." (He has had years of experience in song book work.)

B. O. Harrell, Lockhart, Tex., writes: "The books, 'Immanuel's Praise,' came O. K., and we are delighted with them. Their adaptability to all occasions and requirements, on account of the diversity of songs and music, make them peculiarly superior to any other song book I have ever seen. My chorister said: 'No. 143 is worth far more than the price of the book.'

Dr. H. L. Winburn, pastor of Walnut Street Baptist church, Louisville, Ky., writes: "'Immanuel's Praise,' edited by Alexander and Scholfield, has been given a thorough trial by my choir and congregation during a two weeks' meeting. In my judgment, this book has the finest selection of gospel songs that has ever been brought together in one book. It preserves the valuable and classic among the older hymns and at the same time introduces the more worthy of the new ones. Many songs in it are printed for the first time. Its record-breaking sale is more than justified by the all-around excellence of the book."
